PRESIDENT HARDING'S DEATH PLANNED?

LOVER ACCUSED IN GIRL'S DEATH

Murder at Hoopeston, Ill., Shrouded in Mystery

BODY FOUND IN PARSONAGE

Former Teacher Missing From Home Since March 24.

HOOPESTON, Ill. — (United Press) — Gertrude Hanna, choir girl met death while her betrayer attempted to force her to undergo an illegal operation, evidence indicated today.

Her lover, not wishing to carry out a probable promise of marriage, held the girl prisoner for several days and administered chloroform with the intention of performing the operation while she was unconscious, according to the theory of Chief of Police Bogart.

Death was caused accidentally by an overdose of chloroform, Bogart believed, and the murderer had the body in the parsonage basement of the United Presbyterian church, where it was found by carpenters.

Search was being made throughout Hoopeston and outlying territory for the deserted house where officials believe the girl had a rendezvous with her lover and where she met her death.

BODY IN PARSONAGE

HOOPESTON, Ill. — (Associated Press) — Announcement early today by the coroner's physician that Miss Gertrude Hanna, 25 years old, former school teacher, whose body was found late yesterday in the unoccupied United Presbyterian church parsonage here, was approaching maturity, increased their conviction, county authorities said, that she was murdered. An analysis of the contents of the young woman's stomach today at the University of Illinois is expected to throw further light on the mystery surrounding her death.

The body, lying on a concrete ledge just inside a basement window, was found by carpenters who had been working four days to prepare the parsonage for a new minister to replace Rev. J. P. Malloy, who was called to Chicago last December.

DEAD FOUR WEEKS

The young woman apparently had been dead, according to county authorities who examined the body, approximately four weeks.

Miss Hanna last was seen alive when she left the home of her father, Wesley T. Hanna, Hoopeston mill owner, March 24. It was raining when she left home and her body yesterday still was clad as then, in raincoat and rubber shoes.

During the first week but slight search was made for her, her parents said, as it had been their daughter's custom occasionally to leave home for brief informal visits with friends. More recently every means of search was resorted to, without production of a clue.

An autopsy by John Cole, coroner and county physician, Fisher indicated the young woman's lungs were in good condition. It then was determined that she had the stomach examined.

WELL PRESERVED

Her wrists gave evidence of having been bound tightly for an extended period, although no rope or wire was found near the body. The body itself was well preserved and opinion that it had been kept on ice, or in a cold place since death was voiced. No marks of violence, except the imprints about the wrists, were found.

Three years ago she went to Chicago as a student nurse and still later was employed by a large wholesale concern there.

She tried of city life and returned to Hoopeston.

Miss Hanna was described by acquaintances here, as at times, melancholy and given to fits of crying. It was said that she had but few intimate friends and did not indulge in social activities.

The Hanna family home is but two squares removed from the vacant parsonage in which her body was found.

NEW RECORD FOR SPEEDY JUSTICE IN OHIO SET UP

COLUMBUS. — A new record for speedy justice was set up here today when three confessed bank robbers began serving sentences aggregating 155 years.

The three negroes robbed a local bank on April 18. They were caught in Pennsylvania Sunday, confessed to Columbus authorities Monday, were indicted Wednesday and sentenced yesterday. Their confession made a trial unnecessary, and the court immediately imposed 45 years in the penitentiary for each of the bandits.

GUESTS OF CONGRESSMEN

WASHINGTON. — Ohio women who have been attending the convention of the League of Women Voters in Baltimore, were guests Friday of Ohio Congressmen. They were met at Senator Pomeroy's office by Congressman and "Welcomed to the capital" in a speech by Congressman Burton, of Cleveland.

CONVICTED OF MURDER

LONDON. — Henry Jacob, a 19-year-old parson boy, was found guilty today by the central criminal court for the murder of Lady Alice White, widow of Sir Edward White, former chairman of the London county council, on March 14. He was sentenced to death.

EX-PRESIDENT OF FRANCE DEAD

Paul Deschanel Dies From Attack of Influenza

"TIGER" DEFEATED BY HIM

Long, Brilliant Political Career Brought to Close

PARIS. — (Associated Press.) — Paul Deschanel, former president of France, died this afternoon.

M. Deschanel was taken ill with influenza a few days ago and on Wednesday it was announced that complications had developed and his condition was serious.

After his resignation from the French presidency in September, 1920, M. Deschanel lived in retirement for several months. His condition improved steadily and late that year it was announced he had completely recovered his health. In January of last year he became a candidate in the senatorial elections, being returned for Eure-et-Loire on Jan. 9.

He began attending the senate sessions the following May and in January of this year was appointed a member of the senate foreign affairs committee to replace M. Poincaré when the latter assumed the premiership.

POLITICAL TRIUMPH

Paul Eugene Louis Deschanel, tenth President of France, entered upon a seven-year term in that office on February 18, 1920, after having been chosen by the National Assembly the preceding January by the biggest majority since the election of Thiers, the first President of the present republic. Statesman and author and one of the most brilliant public speakers in France, M. Deschanel's political triumph marked the retirement from public life of former Premier Georges Clemenceau.

The campaign had been most sensational and bitter. M. Clemenceau, then at the height of his power as the French war Premier and one of the negotiators of the treaty with Germany, was, up until a few days before the election, believed to be the only candidate who had a chance for the office. Catholic and Socialist votes in the French Parliament, however, combined with those of the political enemies of the "Tiger" later when Deschanel had been forced by illness to resign. The "Tiger" was asked if he again would permit his name to be used as a candidate for the Presidency.

LONG IN PUBLIC LIFE

For nearly 45 years M. Deschanel had been in French public life. He was President of the Chamber of Deputies when elected to the highest post as First Citizen of France. Previously he had been head of the French Parliamentary Commission on Foreign and Colonial Affairs. In a speech at Paris the first year of the war he declared there could be "no neutralism when civilization itself is at stake." Among his first acts upon assuming the Presidency were his signing of a decree naming commissioners to study French living costs and another barring alcoholic drinks from Elysee Palace.

M. Deschanel was born in 1857 in Brussels, to which city his father went after being exiled from France in 1851 for having published a pamphlet entitled "Catholicism and Socialism." When he was two years old, the boy returned to France with his father, who was pardoned by an act of amnesty, following a recantation of his views.

TRIAL UNDER WAY

First Witness Takes Stand in Miners' Case

CHARLESTOWN, W. Va. — (Associated Press.) — J. F. Stewart, a union miner of Dry Branch, took the stand today as the first witness in the trial of William Blizard, an official of the United Mine Workers of America, who with other officers and members of the union, was indicted for treason. The charges grew out of the storming of the Logan-co line by armed men last fall.

No sooner had Stewart started to testify as a state witness than the defense opened a rapid fire of objections. Stewart told of seeing gatherings of armed men on Lewis Creek, near Marmet, from which point the march started. He testified that "Mother" Jones, whom he described as "a member of the United Mine Workers," addressed the men, telling them they were violating the law and advising that they go home.

INVENTS AUTO ENGINE

SYRACUSE, N. Y. — H. H. Elmer, treasurer and general manager of the Globe Malleable Iron and Steel company, claims to have invented an oil fuel burning engine which will propel an automobile 300 miles on a gallon of fuel costing five and a half cents.

PLANS FORMED TO JAR LID LOOSE

Spencerville Men Retain Counsel to Fight Blue Laws

Spencerville will retain its "True blue" tinge on the coming Sabbath, according to a statement issued by "Hizzoneer" Mayor C. C. Laman, Friday.

"Conditions have not changed," said Laman. "The liberal element is planning to lift the lid, but it will be clamped on as tightly as ever." That business men of the village are getting fed up on a steady Sunday "blue law" diet, was manifested when a delegation retained counsel Friday. What advice was given them could not be learned, but it is hinted that all places may decide to open up Sunday.

Up to date, no one has attempted to defy Laman's order. Council will meet Wednesday, May 3, and it is stated may repeal the ordinance directed against the movie shows, passed some time ago. The ordinance requiring the picture house to close on Sunday, has caused all the rumpus.

CAR CRASHES INTO TOLEDO CROWD

Four Persons Injured by Run-away Automobile

AKRON. — (Associated Press.) — Four persons were injured, two seriously late last night when a run-away automobile ran into a crowd waiting for a street car at Howard and Market-sts., the main downtown business point.

The injured: Mrs. William Bowman, 55, both legs broken.

H. B. McVey, 40, leg broken. Paul Ream, 25, cut and bruised. W. L. White, 60, cut and bruised. George Pelay, Canton restaurant man and owner of the car, and his companion, Edith Marsh, Saline, Pa., are being detained by police for questioning.

Pelay left the car parked on East Market-st. Hill while he and Miss Marsh went into a restaurant for lunch. The brakes failed to hold and the car started down hill, gaining considerable momentum in the three blocks traversed before it swerved into the crowd waiting for a street car.

HELD TO GRAND JURY ON BRIBERY CHARGES

CINCINNATI. — On charges of attempted bribery Edwin G. Gerdas, a former wholesale liquor dealer of this city, and Louis J. Goltzer, of Cleveland, Ohio, were held to the federal grand jury today by United States Commissioner, Gregory in $15,000 bond each. The men were arrested before dawn today in a room at a local hotel by special agents, after it was alleged they had handed to Thomas J. McGee, also a special agent, $200 if he would withdraw prosecution in a case involving a stolen automobile. The government agents also allege McGee was promised $600 more. McGee was serving by pro-arrangement with his fellow agents.

SERVICE RESTORED

TOLEDO. — Resumption of full freight service and the placing of one train in the passenger service between Toledo and Adrian marked today's progress in the restoration of service on the Toledo and Western Interurban lines which has been interrupted for two days by a strike of trainmen.

NON-UNION CAMP IS BLOWN UP

Explosive Thrown Thru Window of Bunkhouse

SEVEN SLEEPING IN ROOM

Attack Made on Quarters in Pennsylvania

APOLLO, Pa. — (United Press.) — Three non-union workers were killed and another injured when a bunkhouse near the Appterson mine of the Kiski Valley Coal company, was dynamited early today.

Seven men were sleeping in the single room of the frame structure when a bomb was hurled thru the window, according to state police.

The dead: Stanley Melike, 30, leaves a widow and four children.

Andrew Borniak, 25, leaves a widow and three children.

Frank Ridgick, 50, leaves a widow and seven children.

The Patterson mine is located in West Moreland-co., across the Kiskimeneas river from Apollo and employs about seventy-five men.

STRIKERS, GUARDS CLASH

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah. — (United Press.) — Three were wounded, two seriously in fighting between coal miners and mine guards at Scofield, a mining camp, according to reports reaching here.

The fighting started when strikers commenced to hurl stones at guards. Shots followed.

WIFE NO. 1 FOUND IN RUSSIA

Bigamy Charged to Pole Husband of U. S. Heiress

PARIS. — (United Press.) — The Russian consulate here today announced it had certified a marriage certificate showing that Anastase Vonsiatky, husband of Mrs. Ream-Stephens, American heiress, had been married at Yalta, on March 6, 1920, to a Russian girl here who claims to be his wife.

A marriage license dated "Yalta, January, 1920," is among the documents whereby Madame Lieuboff Vonsiatky, as she calls herself, hopes to establish her identity as the legal wife of Vonsiatky. Letters from the young love, whose romantic marriage to the Ream heiress in New York recently was heralded as the triumph of love over gold, were shown the correspondent by the Russian girl.

"You know the terrible struggle for life which I am trying to overcome by this marriage," the alleged Vonsiatky letter said. "I am forced by necessity of circumstances to make this marriage."

This letter was dated on the eve of the marriage to Mrs. Stephens. The Russian girl who has brought these charges against Vonsiatky declared her husband was seeking to annul their marriage. She said he accused her of being Jewish, which she denied. Since his marriage to Mrs. Stephens, she declared Vonsiatky had spent a lot of money endeavoring to prove her a Jewess, which would make it possible for him to have their marriage annulled.

The Russian girl said she would not press the bigamy charge against Vonsiatky. She insists their marital status be recognized.

The papers in the case are on the way to New York.

J. B. KEYES DEAD

Rich Principal in Noted Romance Dies at Boston

BOSTON. — (Associated Press.) — John Baker Keyes, wealthy sixty-six-year-old clubman of Cincinnati, whose marriage to Miss Florence Girardin, 19-year-old elevator girl, at the Harvard club of this city, of which he was a member, caused a stir several years ago, died here late yesterday.

Relatives who sought to prevent his marriage had him committed to an asylum but he escaped and effected the elopement. The legal battle continued until December last year, when he was adjudged sane, and his fortune which had been in the hands of a guardian, was returned to him.

His youthful wife sued for divorce but the marriage was annulled instead.

Burial will be at Cincinnati.

RAILWAY PURCHASED

CLEVELAND. — O. P. and M. J. Van Sweringen of Cleveland and their associates have purchased control of the Lake Erie and Western railroad, owned by the New York Central.

FIRST FLAPPER TRAGEDY

IRENE GRANSTEDT

PRICE IS ALWAYS HIGH

In her adolescent groping, 14-year-old Irene Granstedt, chief figure in the first "flapper tragedy," took to "love verse," after the fashion of her more sophisticated elders. Interesting psychological lights on this child, who may face a murder charge, are thrown by these verses, written after her "puppy love" quarrel with Harold Galloway, now near death from a gunshot wound, inflicted by the girl.

"Every person wears a mask With which to hide his soul. Day dreams never seem to last Heartaches take their toll. And to the piper's song we dance—"

The price is always high— Love passes by without a glance And hearts are heavy, hearts are dead. We smile and live and die."

HARD FROST HITS FRUIT TREES

Lack of Moisture Prevents Heavy Damage, Experts Say

Allen-co vegetation was forced to withstand a hard frost, Thursday night. Frost is also predicted for Friday night.

Various theories are put forth as to the probable damage done. Lack of moisture on the plants and trees may have again saved them from destruction, as was the case a week ago.

E. N. Zellitz, gardener and former Lima florist, now residing in Shawnee-pt., is of the opinion vegetables and fruit trees are uninjured. "My trees and plants are protected and that may have seemed the reason my crop is uninjured," Zellitz said. "In portions of the country exposed, I would not be surprised if some damage was done."

William Rusler, sage of Shawnee-pt., was equally as optimistic. Rusler said he had made an examination of fruit trees and he could say positively apples were uninjured. Peaches, he believed, were saved and cherry, pear and plum trees, which blossom earlier, have gone too far to be affected by the frost bite, Rusler believes.

"Lack of moisture in the air and upon the plants and trees undoubtedly saved these crops, but it may require a day or so to learn the extent of the damage," Rusler declared.

H. J. Ridge, county farm agent, was absent from the city Friday. Reports from over the county will be assembled in Ridge's office as to the probable damage incurred.

"Woman Always Pays" Says 14-Year-Old Girl, Held After Shooting

(By GENE COHN)

SAN JOSE, Cal. — (Special) — The first "flapper" tragedy! For a long, long time the "I-told-you-so's" have been forecasting it, impatiently awaiting it!

Over-sophistication of the modern young girl would sooner or later begin to collect its toll — so said debaters on campus and in club room. And it came finally in the little green-hilled suburb of Mountain View.

Irene Granstedt, aged 14, who wears her blond hair bobbed, rolls down her stockings, uses a lip-stick and writes poetry — thus qualifying for flapperdom — finds herself the central figure of a schoolyard tragedy.

Harold Galloway, her 17-year-old "puppy love" sweetheart, is near death from a revolver wound inflicted by her. The child contends, however, that the shot was fired, in a struggle for the gun.

In the immediate foreground of the case are elements that make up a chapter in almost anyone's life — high school dance, a quarrel, hastily spoken words, separation, a broken-hearted girl.

But in the background are incongruous details to interest the students of "flapper" psychology: There is incongruity in the combination of pinaflores and tragedy; puppy love and bullets; schoolyard pastimes and broken hearts; and girls of 14 taking to revolvers as a means of settling childhood quarrels.

"But," say the "flapper" psychologists, "such incongruities can be expected when we find immature children, still in their doll days, attempting a sophistication aped from their elders."

So it was, say San Jose authorities, that Irene Granstedt, at the age of 14, already was a subject for "village gossip." Such appellations as "the baby vamp," were attached to the gossip.

And when the pre-tragedy scene was staged between the girl and her "puppy lover" it was not in the old-fashioned manner that the parting occurred.

According to Irene's story in the jail here: "He called me terrible names. He couldn't repeat them!" "I didn't intend to shoot him!" insists this pathetic child. "I thought I could bluff him, and he grabbed the gun. There was a struggle and it went off — I don't know how."

KILLING ADMITTED

New Clue in Taylor Murder Mystery Traced

SAN FRANCISCO. — (Associated Press.) — The police announced today they had received from the sheriff of Hilo, T. H., a cable asserting that Horace C. Connette, now held in jail in Los Angeles, as a material witness in the William Desmond Taylor murder mystery, admitted that he "killed a man."

Connette, a former Rochester, N. Y., newspaper man, was arrested here this week on his arrival from Honolulu.

The cable said: "Important evidence in my possession concerning Connette. Signed statements available wherein Connette stated he killed a man short time ago in defense of honor. Gave graphic description of Taylor's room at time of killing."

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio. — W. R. McConnell, 23 years old, committed suicide at a railroad depot here last night by swallowing poison. Relatives say they know of no cause for his act.

STEAMER'S CRASH SUSPICIOUS

Plot Seen in Ship Collapse Bound For Pt. Pleasant

DECK BELIEVED WEAKENED

Probe of Accident to Grant Parade Party Begun

CINCINNATI. — (United Press.) — Officers of the United States steamboat inspection bureau, are to make an examination of the steamer Island Queen today, in an effort to determine the cause of the collapse of the fore part of the third deck yesterday, while carrying passengers to the Grant centenary celebration at Point Pleasant.

Reports of the number of persons injured today ranged from 20 to 44, but it was known that all were able to go to their homes except three: Richard Armstrong, 20, of Bethel; Wilbur Morgan, 15, of Manchester, and Francis Henderson, 12, of Manchester.

Morgan was reported to be in a serious condition.

BAND PREVENTS PANIC

An army band, aboard the steamer, prevented a panic by striking up a live tune immediately after the accident. The boat continued its trip to Point Pleasant and discharged its passengers, but returned immediately to Cincinnati, carrying only the injured.

President Harding and his party were to go to Point Pleasant on the Island Queen, but at the eleventh hour the committee changed arrangements and made accommodations for the president's party on board the Cayuga, a government boat.

SUSPICION ABOUSED

Examination of the boat was being made under the belief deck supports had been tampered with prior to the boat's departure from the Cincinnati wharf.

The boat's capacity is 3,000 and only a little more than half that number were aboard, officials said. Realizing that widespread publicity had been given the announcement that President Harding and party were to board the steamer, government inspectors admitted they considered the accident suspicious.

PROBERS NAMED

CINCINNATI. — (Associated Press.) — While United States government inspectors were preparing to make an investigation of the river steamer Island Queen, a deck of which collapsed yesterday while 3,000 persons were being taken up the river to Point Pleasant for the Grant centenary celebration, Manager Risenberger of the company operating the boat, declared he believed the deck supports of the boat "had been tampered with."

Manager Risenberger gave no reason for his announced belief but Winton S. Kelly, an investigator for the Juvenile Protective Association, said he had reported to city and federal authorities on April 17, that the deck supports, which gave way, had broken before and were unsafe. He will be questioned by federal investigators.

The government investigation will be in charge of George Green, United States inspector of steamship engineering, stationed at Louisville, Ky.

REJECT PAY CUT

Cleveland Carmen Expected to Strike Monday

CLEVELAND. — (Associated Press.) — Cleveland is preparing for a street car strike. With the representatives of the carmen's union and officials of the Cleveland Railway Company deadlocked over a wage scale for 1923 and no meeting scheduled for a continuation of negotiations, doubt was expressed today whether a settlement would be reached before May 1, when the present contract expires.

The motormen and conductors have voted almost unanimously to reject a proposed ten per cent wage reduction. The company has announced its determination not to recede from its proposition.

At present new employees receive 55 cents an hour, those in the service six months 58 cents and those a year or more 60 cents.

FRUSTRATED VENGEANCE COSTS WOMAN'S REASON

NEW YORK. — Frustration of her desire for vengeance on the woman, who slew her husband has cost Mrs. Mario Gormley Kinkead, widow of Ellis Guy Kinkead, former corporation counsel of Cincinnati, her reason. Dr. Mortimer Sherman, head of the psychopathic department of Kings-co hospital declared today.

Mrs. Kinkead is under observation at the hospital. She collapsed after Olivia M. P. Stone had been acquitted of Kinkead's murder, and now is in a straightjacket. Dr. Sherman said. As soon as the period of observation is up, he will recommend a transfer to an asylum.

LOAN TO RUSSIA IS REFUSED

Reconstruction Plan Finally Determined by Allies

SHOWDOWN COMES SOON

Definite Decision Demanded of Soviet Envoys

GENOA — (Associated Press) — Plans for Russia's reconstruction were being finally determined upon today in the conference sub-committee on Russian affairs and the indications were that a definite proposition would be laid before the Russian delegation by the week-end with the suggestion that the proposition be either accepted or rejected without further discussion.

The Italian press today gives indications of what the allied proposals are.

First, it is asserted, no loan will be offered to Soviet Russia, but it will be suggested that an international consortium be formed to finance trade with Russia thru combinations of firms and individuals of the various countries represented. Germany will be included in the consortium, it is declared, and provision made that the United States may join.

COLONIZATION OF RUSSIA

This plan contemplates the economic colonization of Russia, with guarantees that the autonomy and sovereignty of the Soviet government will not be infringed upon.

The division of trade will be arranged in such a way that the countries participating in the consortium will have the opportunity of dealing with the sections of Russia situated nearest them. For example, Great Britain would be given the opportunity to trade with northern Russia thru Archangel and the Baltic ports while the southern countries would be given advantages in the Black sea ports.

RUSSIAN ATTITUDE

The document is the result of deliberations participated in, besides the British prime minister, by M. Barthou, for France; M. Schanzer for Italy; M. Jassper for Belgium; Baron Hayashi for Japan. An indication that the Russians will insist on maintaining the principle of nationalization of property in Russia — one of the most difficult angles of the situation, involving as it does the ownership of properties claimed by the nationals of the allies and other countries even to the extent of withdrawing from the conference, was given in their statement of last night.

"Russia has not the least desire for a rupture," said the statement in part, "but she is determined to safeguard the principle of sovereign rights and the principle of reciprocity which is the only possible basis of a community of peoples and economic reconstruction."

While bending his main efforts to ending the Russian deadlock, Lloyd George is not neglecting his plans for non-aggression pact, and several tentative outlines of such a document have been drafted. One of these would provide an international force to protect weak nations from aggressive neighbors, but this is understood to have small chance for adoption.

FRENCH DIVIDED

GENOA — (Associated Press) — Emergency has developed between the French delegation at the Genoa conference and the government in Paris and Louis Barthou, head of the delegation, has telegraphed Premier Poincare for permission to spend two days in the French capital to confer on the situation.

This request appears to have been granted, for the semi-official Havas Agency stated today that M. Barthou would go to Paris tomorrow for a conference with Premier Poincare and would be back in Genoa next Wednesday. The French delegation has announced that Premier Poincare is not disposed to come to Genoa.

The difficulty was said in conference quarters to have arisen thru the growth here of a spirit of conciliation and co-operation which government circles in Paris, despite constant informative messages from their representatives here, have appeared not to grasp.

DAUGHTERS OF VETERANS HONOR MEMORY OF GRANT; PRESENTATION OF FLAG

A large flag, presented by Elizabeth Turner tent, Daughters of Veterans, for use at Memorial Hall, at the exercises, Thursday evening, honoring the birthday of President Grant will fly from a staff to be placed on the lawn.

Presentation was made by members of the tent. Colonel John A. Hardley, former commander of William Paul Gallagher post, American Legion, responded, in a brief address to the presentation.

Eugene T. Lippincott, prosecuting attorney, was the speaker of the evening, eulogizing the life and works of President Grant. A musical and literary program featured the observance.

No admission was charged, but a collection, amounting to $25, was taken and will be turned over to the Social Service bureau. Mrs. Jennie Ridenour, chairman of the committee on entertainment, and patriotic instructor of the Tent, presided.

MAN WANTED HERE IS SENTENCED AT FINDLAY ON CHARGE OF FORGERY

T. B. Miller, wanted in Lima for passing an alleged forged check at the Quality Boot Shop, W. Market-st., April 17, has been found guilty of a similar crime in Findlay, local police say, and sentenced to the Ohio penitentiary.

Miller is an alias, Findlay headquarters say. The man's real name is Albright.

He is said to have confessed forgery activities in other towns nearby Lima. Findlay authorities state he left a long trail of worthless paper behind him in Delphos. The amount of the check he is alleged to have passed here was $14, according to Chief of Police Lanker.

A copy of the commitment papers will be certified to the local department from Findlay, Lanker is believed.

FLOODS BATTLED BY HUGE ARMY

Reinforcements Rushed to Breaks in Mississippi Levee

CREVASSES WIDEN RAPIDLY

Waters Continue to Spread Over Louisiana Sections

NEW ORLEANS

— (Associated Press) — With two great sections of Louisiana farmland already inundated by flood waters from two breaks in the Mississippi river levee in the last forty-eight hours, levee engineers today were concentrating their attention on other points in the lower and middle reaches of the river where the torrent is threatening to break thru. The levee near Arkansas City, Ark., and at Plaquemine, La., were the two points where trouble was most feared.

Altho additional forces of labor were put to work also on the levees south of Hickman, Ky., and north of Greenville, Miss., levee engineers today said a break at these points in the central section was not expected.

CREVASSE WIDENS

Flood waters escaping from the second break in the levee yesterday at Poydras, 12 miles below New Orleans, today had flooded more than 15,000 acres of sugar and truck lands in St. Bernard and Plaquemine parishes and about 350 families had been driven out of a section of St. Bernard parish between the river and Lake Bourge. Efforts are still being made to tie the ends of the crevasse, which has widened to more than 400 feet early today, but there was practically no hope that the gap could be closed at this stage.

Further up the river, waters rushing thru the first break north of Ferriday, La., had engulfed practically the entire area of Concordia parish and were threatening more than half of Catahoula and a large part of three other parishes. The crevasse, which has spread to a width of more than 1,500 feet, was inspected by government engineers yesterday and it was understood an effort would be made to check further crumbling of the embankment.

FAST INLAND SEA

Flood waters were reported to be four or five feet deep in the town of Ferriday, four miles north of the first break and the entire district opposite Natchez, Miss., on the Louisiana side was a vast inland sea with boats affording the only means of communication. Vidalia, a town of 2,000, is in the direct path of the flood but had not been reached by it today.

More than 4,000 persons are being cared for in the huge camps established at Natchez and neighboring points in Louisiana by the Red Cross, which reports an urgent need for more tents and equipment.

EVANGELIST OPENS BIG REVIVAL IN MEMORIAL HALL

To Speak on Wonderful Bible Subjects Thrilling With Interest.

Evangelist Lindsay, of Akron will open his Lima Revival in Memorial Hall Sunday night, April 30. The subject of his opening sermon will be, "The Second Coming of Christ to Earth—Are We Nearing That Great Event?"

The Evangelist, who has been a student of Bible prophecy for years promises to prove by the Bible, and the Bible alone, that Christ will come again to earth personally, literally, and in the near future.

He will speak in Memorial Hall every night excepting Saturday night. Some of the thrilling subjects to be discussed by Evangelist Lindsay, are: "Signs of Christ's Return—Where Are They?" "Where are the Dead—In Heaven, Hell, Purgatory or the Grave?" "What is the Spirit—What is the Soul?" "When Do We Receive Our Rewards—At Death or at the Resurrection?" "The Punishment of the Wicked—Will It Be in Literal Fire—Are the Wicked Burning Now?" "What and Where is Hell?" "No Temporal Millennium and No Second Chance." "What is the Unpardonable Sin—How May We Know if We Have Committed It?" "The Seven Last Plagues—When Will They Sweep the World?" "The

BOND CHARGES UP TO DAUGHERTY

Startling Disclosures in Duplication Forecast by Johnson

DENIED BY U. S. OFFICIALS

Case Presented to Department of Justice

(By LAURENCE M. BENEDICT)

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — "Startling disclosures" in connection with his charges of wholesale duplication of government bonds, were forecast today by Representative Royal C. Johnson, South Dakota Republican.

Johnson spoke with reference to insistent rumors of the duplication and circulation of between $250,000,000 and $400,000,000 worth of government bonds. On the floor of the house, he had charged that "hundreds of millions of dollars worth" of such bonds had been duplicated.

"Within a few weeks, this matter will be the overshadowing piece of news in Washington," Johnson told the United Press.

This statement was made in the face of the repeated denials of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, of reports of duplications of gigantic proportions.

UP TO DAUGHERTY

Johnson today reiterated to the United Press his charges of duplications and said that he had placed the facts as he found them before the department of justice.

Attorney General Daugherty, who accompanied President Harding on the trip to Point Pleasant, Ohio, was due back in Washington today and may issue a statement in reply to Johnson, either denying or affirming the charges.

It was recalled that representatives of the justice department took part in the inventory recently made at the bureau of printing and engraving following the dismissal of 27 bureau chiefs.

William J. Burns, head of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice, today denied reports that his men were watching or had taken into custody a number of men who formerly held positions of trust with the government.

REPORTS DENIED

Government officials are making every effort to still the stories of duplications. "These stories already have had a bad effect on government bonds, one treasury department official stated. Holders of bonds are becoming anxious for fear they are in possession of duplicates.

It will be extremely difficult to trace down duplicated bonds, because many of the issues involved in the reports do not mature for many years and some not until 1947.

Representative Johnson said that he personally took to the department of justice seven typewritten pages of numbers of government bonds that had been duplicated, most of the numbers of the spurious bonds running 100,000 higher than the original bonds issued by the treasury.

The numbers of the illegal bonds and information said to show that they were duplicates, were furnished to him, Johnson declared, by J. W. McCarter, South Dakota, register of the treasury department, during a part of the last administration. McCarter was "a man of known character" because he brought the alleged duplications to the attention of higher treasury officials.

FROST ATTACKS FRUIT TREE BUDS

Despite the fact that a heavy frost was visited on this section Thursday night, fruit specialists sated Friday they see no apparent indication of extensive damage to fruit buds.

This is due, they state, to the fact that everything was dry and that the freezing of buds and petals is very slight. Ice formed in vessels of water, in the open.

Other frost is predicted or tonight.

Fair and continued cool conditions is the immediate outlook for tonight and Saturday. Ted regrets it but has joined the optimist club and expresses the hope that things are not as bad as they seem — in the matter of visitation of Jack Frost.

Farm lands and garden spaces are in better condition to work since the rains have ceased and there is a better outlook for growers.

J. B. Wall, managing director of Albert J. Stange, chain stores and local manager at the Leiser Store, is in New York, making extensive purchases.

LIMA HIGH STUDENTS IN FINDLAY MUSICAL CONTESTS FRIDAY NIGHT

Lima Central and South High schools will take an important part in the High school Elstaddfest, to be held tonight at Findlay. Pupils entered in the various musical events left at noon, with their accompanists and coaches.

The program will open late in the afternoon. Many friends of the young people, accompanied them to cheer them to victory. Money prizes will be given the winners and to the high school making the highest number of points in the contest, a trophy will be awarded.

H. W. LEWIS FUNERAL IS ARRANGED FOR SATURDAY

Funeral services for Horace W. Lewis, 82, who died Thursday, will be held Saturday at 2 p. m., at Central Church of Christ. Rev. J. A. Canby will officiate. Interment in Woodlawn.

Death was due, to complications, after an illness of twelve weeks. He was a contractor by occupation, and was born in Warren. Besides the widow, two grand-children, Hobart H. and Miss Violet M. Lewis, both of Lima, survive.

C. C. SEEKS AID OF CLUBS IN CITY ZONING PROBLEM

Letters were sent out Friday to the Federated Women's clubs of the city and to the East Side Improvement association, asking the two organizations to devote one meeting in May to the city zoning problem. Recommendations they may make will be reported to the Chamber of Commerce.

An outline of city planning will be presented to the following organizations at future meetings by committee members: L. A. Larsen, will talk to Rotary; J. I. Motter, to Kiwanis; Gus Holstein, will lay the matter before the president of the Lions club; E. S. Barringer, Lima Trades and Labor council; C. J. Woerner, engineers society.

W. L. Parmenter, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce committee, announced Friday that a dinner will be arranged early in June, when an expert in city planning will be present.

Paving Work in Seven Streets is Hampered by Weather Conditions

Paving in seven sections of Lima streets is proceeding slowly, due to weather conditions, Vaughn Miller, city engineer, said Friday.

The three contractors have made some progress with excavation work. The Andrews Asphalt Paving Co., Hamilton, has excavation on Marion-av, McDowell to Baxter-st, nearly completed. The company's asphalt mixer is being set up at E. McKibben-st and the E. & O. tracks.

The Federal Asphalt Co. will complete grading Pierce-st and move to Rosedale or Kenilworth-av. J. J. Johnson, contractor on Jamison-av, will complete grading work this week. The street is to be paved with brick, on a concrete base.

JERWERS FACES COURT; DURR ASKS NEW TRIAL

Proceeding the trial of W. H. Jerwers, Atlantic-ave, arrested in February for alleged possession of intoxicating liquor, Saturday at 10 a. m. in criminal court, a motion for retrial in the case of J. W. Durr will be heard.

Durr was found guilty Wednesday of totting a bottle of "old rare" around.

Jerwers has been "out on $1,000 bond. Police arrested him after a tussle, in which they say he brandished a shotgun.

BODY CREMATED, ASHES OF METCALF BROUGHT HERE

The ashes of Benjamin Metcalf, son of the late Judge B. F. Metcalf, who died more than a month ago in California, were brought to Lima and placed in Woodlawn cemetery, Thursday. Metcalf's parents are buried in Woodlawn. It was the request of the son to rest beside them, but the body was first to be cremated.

REV. SPAYDE GIVES TALK ON PRAYER

Lima Pastor Speaker at Springfield Theology School

Rev. Webster C. Spayde, pastor of Bethany Lutheran church, was chosen to deliver an address before the Hama Divinity Summer School of theology, held from Monday until Friday in Springfield.

Rev. Spayde appeared on the program Thursday. His subject was "The Christian Man and the Lord's Prayer." He declared that as a Christian and a member of the church, a man must be a real follower of Christ and a prayerful person.

The minister contrasted the prayer as to brevity, devotion and simplicity and the spirit of reverence implied. He said that it asked for spiritual, instead of temporal benefits, reflected humility and honor to God. He urged it be the one great prayer of Christians everywhere.

Rev. Spayde spoke with eminent Lutheran divines from all over the country, who were called to address the school.

CRIDERSVILLE COMMENCEMENT
Rev. Kirk B. O'Ferrail, rector of Christ Church, Episcopal, will deliver the commencement address to the Cridersville High school on next Thursday evening. Cridersville will have a class of eleven graduates, six of whom are boys.

Music lovers anticipate with delight the appearance Friday evening of the Bluffton college glee club, an organization of twenty men, who come to the First Congregational church, under auspices of the Y Men's club of the Y. M. C. A.

The club is heralded as one of the best in the country. Prof. Elmer Lauenstein will appear as violinist and Prof. B. D. Smucker will give readings.

All funds secured will go to aid the Social Service bureau. This club will make a tour of the United States this summer and music lovers here expect a rare treat.

ADDITIONAL JURORS ARE DRAWN FOR COURT CASES

Six additional petit jurors were drawn Friday and Saturday in common pleas court. They are called to report next Monday.

At that time the trial of the case of Dorothy Collins against Perry Collins will be called. Object of the suit is to secure the will of the late Samuel Collins. Miss Collins declares the document filed in probate court is not the last will of her grand-father.

Jurors called include: Roy E. Schultz, of Lima, first ward P. L. Schuler, Richland-tp; George J. Smith, Lima, fifth ward D. J. D. Pellgrini, Lima, first ward B. Theodore Koop, Shawnee-tp, and Arthur Steale, Lima, second ward D.

$10 FOR SPEEDING
Clayton Licht, 850 E. High-st., was fined $10 in criminal court Friday when he pleaded to exceeding the speed limit.

CITY-O. E. CONTROVERSY ON PAVING AND FARES IS BELIEVED NEAR CLOSE

Prediction that a controversy between the city and the Ohio Electric, regarding renewal of rails and roadbed in N. Main-st. and Grand-av. to permit paving will be adjusted soon, was made by Manager Bingham, Friday.

Bingham said it might not be necessary to call a special meeting of the commission on Saturday. He thought it probable that the 7-cent fare ordinance will be renewed by special legislation Monday night.

The traction company has expressed a desire to cooperate with the city in the paving of the streets.

POLICE UNDECIDED IN MANGAN, HOLLAR CASE

Arrests have been filed in criminal court against Frank Mangan, 46, of 1424 S. Union-st., and Lee Hollar, 26, same address, arrested on a charge of having a still.

Authorities are still undecided whether to handle the cases thru federal court, Chief of Police Lancker said.

THIEVES WORK AS PEOPLE WORSHIP

Autos and Equipment Stolen Near First Baptist Church

ELDERS ACT TO STOP THEFTS

Crime Wave Sweeping the World, Pastor Steeves Says

Depredations by thieves which have been a source of annoyance and some loss to parishioners of the First Baptist church during the past winter have compelled elders of the church to take steps to protect motor cars parked near the church during services.

Just what action has been taken in the matter, Rev. Warren L. Steeves, pastor, is reluctant to discuss. But if rumor is true, a detective has been employed to patrol the vicinity while religious services are in progress.

CHURCH BOARD ACTS

"We have taken steps we deem necessary to put a stop to thieving," is the way Rev. Steeves expressed it when questioned about the matter. The church is located at W. High and McDowell sts., a short distance from the business section. During the winter numerous articles have been taken from cars. Coats, robes, accessories, and three cars have been stolen, it is stated.

Thefts became so prevalent that members of the congregation began to hesitate to drive to church or prayer meeting in their cars. They either walked, or remained at home. Rev. Steeves admitted he had called attention of the police department to the situation, but the losses continued.

It was at this point that other means of curbing the operations of the thieves were taken.

POLICE GET ONE CALL

Chief Tom Lanker, said his records show there has been one call from the church since he took command of the force. April 22 it was reported that three men were trying to steal a car near the church. Two policemen were sent out, but the men escaped.

Rev. Steeves attributes the thieving to a crime wave, which he says is world wide.

GOOD OILER OPENED ON YOUNGMAN FARM

Oil men operating on the Youngman farm, one and a half miles east and north of Lima, Thursday brought in what they declare to be a good producer. C. Bodkins is driller.

Drilling is being continued to secure maximum production. Oil has filled the well within a few hundred feet of the top. It was pumped out Friday and drilling resumed. Considerable gas is present with the oil.

ATTORNEY FOUND DEAD

INDIANAPOLIS. — James P. Curtis, New York attorney, was found dead in his room in a local hotel. Death apparently was due to heart disease.

SECURITIES BRING GOOD PREMIUM

Bonus of $1,205 Paid by Firm For $56,100 Lima Bonds

That a ready sale may be expected for Lima municipal bonds this year, was evidenced Friday when City Auditor Evan O. Sellers sold the $56,100 issue of refunding bonds on four streets, for a premium of $1,205.

The securities were purchased by the Fifth Third National Bank, of Cincinnati. Ryan-Bowman, of Toledo, bid second highest, with a bonus of $1,113.21 offered.

The Lima Trust Company, the only local financial concern bidding, stood third, with an offer of $955.

Other concerns bidding were: Slayton & Co., Toledo; W. K. Terry, Cleveland; A. T. Bell Co., Toledo; Grau-Todd, Cincinnati, and the Providence Savings & Trust Co., Cincinnati. A. T. Bell was low, with an offer of $73 premium.

Auditor Sellers is highly pleased with the outcome of the sale and predicts there will be no difficulty in disposing of other city issues. Falling interest rates are also indicated by the premium offered for the bonds. The issue comprises 5 and 5 1-2 per cent bonds.

LANKER'S ORDER REDUCES PLAINCLOTHESMEN FORCE ON DUTY SUNDAY TO ONE

Beginning Sunday, only one plainclothesman will be on duty at police headquarters, instead of the regular relief, as has been the custom heretofore.

There is very little work for the men on Sunday. Chief of Police Lanker says. Their chief function, investigation work, is not required on the Sabbath because places of business are closed and a large number of the citizens are absent from their homes.

The force will in no way be impaired, Lanker said. The men who are on duty are subject to call at any time, and the patrol system will be maintained the same as heretofore, he said.

Willis Kipker will be on duty Sunday. The other five policemen in plain clothes, Ward Taylor, Ray Blair, Ross Landfair, Tom Lawlor and Jess Hargrove, will alternate.

CHILD WELFARE WORKERS HOLD CONFERENCE HERE; HOME IS WANTED FOR BOY

Northwest district conference of the supervisor and field workers of the State Board of Charities, child welfare division, was held in Lima Friday, in the Metropolitan-bldg, for the purpose of planning further activities of the organization.

P. E. Kilgore, of Columbus, supervisor; P. W. Weaver, of Tiffin, Miss. Patricia Mengert, of Toledo and Mrs. G. E. McCormick of Marion, attended the conference.

Mrs. McCormick is an officer of the Federated Women's clubs of Ohio. While in Lima, Mrs. McCormick stated that the Child Welfare Bureau, Oak and Ninth-sts., Columbus, is seeking a home for Billy, a bright, jolly boy 14 years old.

ROAD CHIEF NAMED
PHOENIX, Ariz. — Charles H. Brough, former governor of Arkansas, was re-elected president of the United States Good Roads Association yesterday. Charles E. Townsend, senator from Michigan; Judge W. W. Brannon, Alabama and Mrs. Albert E. Thornton, Georgia, were among those chosen vice presidents at large. J. A. Rountree, Birmingham, Ala., was re-elected director general.

WHY WOMEN GET BLUE

Are not women naturally as light-hearted, brave and hopeful as men? Yes, certainly; but a woman's organism is essentially different from a man's—more delicate, more sensitive and more exacting. Women in delicate health are more dependent, more nervous, more irritable and more despondent. When a woman develops nervousness, backaches, sleeplessness, headaches, dragging down pains and melancholia, she should lose no time in giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial, as it will quickly dispel such troubles. This root and herb medicine contains no drugs and has been the standby of American womanhood for nearly fifty years.

KU KLUX CHARGED WITH OUTRAGE

Blamed for "Reign of Terror" in California

LOS ANGELES—(United Press)—We have definitely linked the Ku Klux Klan with the masked mob outrage at Inglewood and with the reign of terror holding sway throughout the Kern-co oil fields for months.

"We are now fully prepared to go before the grand jury convinced that we can prove our contentions."

This was the assertion of District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine, as he and his aides today completed checking the data seized in a recent raid on Ku Klux Klan headquarters here, where documents and membership rosters pertaining to the Klan activities in five states were confiscated by authorities.

District attorneys of California, whose counties have been scourged by night riders, today planned a meeting in Los Angeles to consider united action against the masked terror.

District Attorney Dorsey, of Bakersfield, here in a conference with Woolwine, reported other officials had been summoned.

Judge Frederick W. Houser, of the superior court today upset the plans of Woolwine for asking wholesale indictments of night riders in connection with the Inglewood raid, by refusing to convene a grand jury.

Meanwhile, the grand goblin of California's Ku Klux Klan announced the best legal talent in the state is being lined up to defend any Klansman who may be accused.

BURR NOT FOUND

Missing Lima Man Not in Burlington—Search Started

Search for M. H. Burr, local man missing since Saturday, was intensified Friday when his wife supplied police with a list of cities he may have gone to, in the hope that by communicating with police there, some trace of him may be found.

No inkling of his whereabouts has been received here. The hope of his wife, who is employed at the C. F. Wade home, Logan-av., that he went to the home of his mother and sister in Burlington, Iowa, has been dashed. He has not appeared there. It has been learned.

Burr suffered from illness, his wife said and shortly before he disappeared is known to have investigated papers filed at the court house. Police are attempting to discover what he was seeking.

Who inclined to scout the theory of foul play, Mrs. Burr has no good reason to suppose that her husband was not waylaid. It is taken for granted that he went to the home of a relative, somewhere.

Rigid search for Burr will be instituted, Chief of Police Lunker said Friday. Little was done at first, to allow time for a report from Burlington, but as it is apparent now that he did not go there, search will be directed elsewhere.

SOUTH IS FOUND GUILTY; WALLACE FINED $1,000 ON LIQUOR LAW CHARGE

An alleged bootlegger, E. E. South, was found guilty, and a possessor of illicit liquor, Frank Wallace, denied a new trial and fined in criminal court. The former was arrested after a mishap at Main and High-sts., April 3, when he crashed into a truck and two gallons of corn whiskey was found in his machine.

Wallace was found guilty two months ago. Motion for new trial was denied. He was fined $1,000 late Thursday. South's attorney will introduce a motion for re-trial, Monday at 9 a. m.

The Wallace case dates back to December 12. Wallace was taken in a raid on "The Lark", Wayne-st and Central-av. His attorney stated the case will in all probability be carried to common pleas court.

Another trial, that of Henry Upthegrove, 1415 W. Spring-st, charged with assault upon his wife, was postponed Thursday to May 4. The pair is alleged to have fought over their son, whether or not he should go to church. They have been given a divorce in common pleas court, and an agreement was reached in criminal court that the case will be dropped if Upthegrove leaves the city by May 4.

JOYRIDERS TAKE ANOTHER Recovery of an auto owned by Dr. V. H. Hay, 916 W. Elm-st, taken from in front of the Ellerman building, Thursday night, was made by police on Kibby-st, Friday. Joyriders, they say.

SECURITIES BRING GOOD PREMIUM

Bonus of $1,205 Paid by Firm For $56,100 Lima Bonds

That a ready sale may be expected for Lima municipal bonds this year, was evidenced Friday when City Auditor Evan O. Sellers sold the $56,100 issue of refunding bonds on four streets, for a premium of $1,205.

The securities were purchased by the Fifth-Third National Bank, of Cincinnati. Ryan-Bowman, of Toledo, bid second highest, with a bonus of $1,113.21 offered.

The Lima Trust Company, the only local financial concern bidding, stood third, with an offer of $955.

Other concerns bidding were: Slayton & Co., Toledo; W. K. Terry, Cleveland; A. T. Bell Co., Toledo; Grau-Todd, Cincinnati, and the Providence Savings & Trust Co., Cincinnati. A. T. Bell was low, with an offer of $73 premium.

Auditor Sellers is highly pleased with the outcome of the sale and predicts there will be no difficulty in disposing of other city issues. Falling interest rates are also indicated by the premium offered for the bonds. The issue comprises 5 and 6 1-2 per cent bonds.

LANCKER'S ORDER REDUCES PLAINCLOTHESMEN FORCE ON DUTY SUNDAY TO ONE

Beginning Sunday, only one plainclothesman will be on duty at police headquarters, instead of the regular relief, as has been the custom heretofore.

There is very little work for the men to do on Sundays, Chief of Police Lancker says. Their chief function, investigation work, is not required on the Sabbath because places of business are closed and a large number of the citizens are absent from their homes.

The force will in no way be impaired, Lancker said. The men who are not on duty are subject to call at any time, and the patrol system will be maintained the same as heretofore, he said.

Willis Kipker will be on duty Sunday. The other five policemen in plain clothes, Ward Taylor, Ray Blajer, Ross Landfair, Tom Lawlor and Jess Hargrove, will alternate.

CHILD WELFARE WORKERS HOLD CONFERENCE HERE; HOME IS WANTED FOR BOY

Northwest district conference of the supervisor and field workers of the State Board of Charities, child welfare division, was held in Lima Friday, in the Metropolitan-Hik, for the purpose of planning further activities of the organization.

P. E. Kilcore, of Columbus, supervisor; P. W. Weaver, of Tiffin, Miss. Patricia Mengert, of Toledo and Mrs. G. E. McCormick of Marion, attended the conference.

Mrs. McCormick is an officer of the Federated Women's clubs of Ohio. While in Lima, Mrs. McCormick stated that the Child Welfare Bureau, Oak and Ninth-sts., Columbus, is seeking a home for Billy, a bright, jolly boy 14 years old.

ROAD CHIEF NAMED
PHOENIX, Ariz. — Charles H. Brough, former governor of Arkansas, was re-elected president of the United States Good Roads Association yesterday. Charles E. Townsend, senator from Michigan; Judge W. W. Brandon, Alabama and Mrs. Albert E. Thornton, Georgia, were among those chosen vice presidents at large. J. A. Rountree, Birmingham, Ala., was re-elected director general.

WHY WOMEN GET BLUE
Are not women naturally as light hearted, brave and hopeful as men? Yes, certainly; but a woman's organism is essentially different from a man's—more delicate, more sensitive and more exacting. Women in delicate health are more dependent, more nervous, more irritable and more despondent. When a woman develops nervousness, backaches, sleeplessness, headaches, dragging-down pains and melancholia she should lose no time in giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial, as it will quickly dispel such troubles. This root and herb medicine contains no drugs and has been the standby of American womanhood for nearly fifty years.

LARGE CROWDS ARE DRAWN

Trial of Miners Big Event in Little City

(By C. G. LYON)
 CHARLESTOWN, W. Va., (Special).—The main street of this pretty little town in the mountains of eastern West Virginia is jammed from morning till night with autos, buses and drays.
 The narrow sidewalks are made almost impassable by hundreds of men standing about with pink ribbons floating from their coat lapels. Street vendors hawk their wares. Members of the Chamber of Commerce and old residents bustle about with badges that tell they are members of the "Reception Committee."
 Numerous signs point the way to the "Bureau of Information" or the "Rooms to Let" headquarters. Hotels and stores, taxi-drivers and bootblackers, movies and soda fountains haven't enjoyed such prosperity in years.
 LIKE A CONVENTION
 Every surface indication tells that Charlestown is entertaining a convention of some kind.
 But it isn't. The majority of its "guests" are the hundreds of union coal miners from the opposite end of the state—nearly 400 miles away—who are on trial for murder and treason in connection with their "armed march" into Logan-co last August and September.
 The pink badges they wear have printed on them "United Mine Workers of America-Defendants." That's so they can distinguish one another and be distinguished from the hundreds of others who are here for their trial—witnesses, lawyers, coal operators, mine guards, private police, deputies, federal agents, and bootleggers.
 The only reason Jefferson-co., of which Charlestown is the county seat, was selected for their trials is that it hasn't a coal mine within its confines and is farthest removed from the armed march.
 Charlestown is quite overcome with the notoriety it is getting—and the thousands of dollars of outside money that is going into its cash registers every day.
 Many descendants of Charles and Samuel Washington, brothers of George Washington, live here and dominate about everything—busi-

MINERS ON TRIAL AT CHARLESTOWN, WEST VIRGINIA

Every man in this group of coal miners, snapped before the courthouse at Charles Town, W. Va., is under indictment for treason, murder or other charges growing out of the armed march last August of union coal miners from Kenawha-co to Logan-co.

RICHEST MEN NOT COLLEGE-BRED

Business World, However, Seeks Aides With Diplomas

OLD-SCHOOL IDEAS CHANGED

Distinct Advantage Obtained in University Degree

(BY B. C. FORBES)

NEW YORK — (Special) — Do business and financial leaders prefer college graduates when picking men? Is it advisable for the young man who aspires to attain business success to spend four years or more at college?

Are most of the very biggest business positions in America held by college or by non-college men?

Old-school men of affairs, most of them graduates only of the University of Hard Knocks, had little respect, as a rule, for college-bred youths. They themselves had won their way to the top without any diploma and many of them looked rather with disdain upon "college graduates," as they sometimes dubbed the products of the colleges.

But the New-School of leaders is composed to quite an extent of college graduates. Of the three largest industrial corporations in America, two are headed by college men; the president of our largest railway had a college education; the heads of the country's largest national bank and largest trust company have diplomas.

On the other hand, not one of the very richest men in America is a college graduate—neither John D. Rockefeller nor William Rockefeller has a college degree, neither has George F. Baker nor Henry Ford, neither has Thomas Fortune Ryan nor James B. Duke, neither had Harriman nor Hill.

It can be safely stated that the majority of the financial and business leaders of today look favorably upon a college education when selecting aides.

In the old days, business was largely a rule-of-thumb matter. A superior education was not at all necessary to grapple with its problems. Today, however, business and finance are conducted, in the upper reaches, on a colossal scale. Many modern problems are national and even international in ramifications. A sound knowledge of history, of geography, of economics, of the intricacies of a complicated situation, while we all know that colleges can turn out numskulls as well as brilliant men, the brilliant training, the educational background, the perspective derivable at college are useful under many circumstances.

On the whole, therefore, very distinct advantages can be obtained from a four-years' course, intelligently followed, at college.

One advantage not often considered in connection with a college education is that it affords the right stamp of young man an opportunity to win distinction at an age when he could not be hoped to win it out in the work-a-day world. This may not seem important. But it is becoming important. I know heads of great organizations who always make a point of investigating whether a man under consideration for a responsible position made any distinct mark while at college. Said one such employer to me: "I don't care much whether a young man when at college gained distinction on the athletic field, in the classroom, or as a leader of the student body. The important point is that he attained leadership in whichever field he applied himself to. I want as my principal assistants men possessing qualities of leadership."

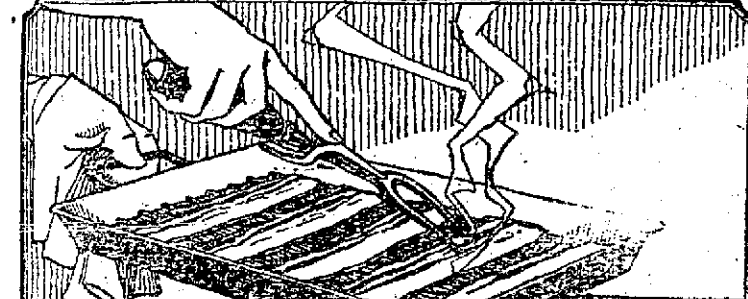

It may be pertinent to add that of all the leading men of affairs I know, very few have not made themselves very well educated, no matter how scant their early schooling. There are a few glaring exceptions, it is true. But I should say that nine of every ten business and financial men who have become nationally known would qualify as "educated." If this is so, are there not distinct advantages in seeking as much education as possible early in life.

15 MORE MEN FOR FIRE FORCE

Underwriters' Inspector Makes Recommendations

TRUCKS ARE UNDERMANNED

Light Wire on Nail Costs City Extra Insurance

Additional of 15 more men to the fire fighting force of the city is recommended in a report made to the National Board of Fire Underwriters by J. H. Howland, engineer, who inspected the fire hazards in Lima, March 17 and 18.

A copy of the report was made public Friday by Manager C. A. Bingham.

The report also calls for a new 20-inch water main thru the business district and the purchase of another 6,000-gallon centrifugal pump.

Regarding the increase of the fire department, the report says that engine No. 2 and ladder truck No. 1 are undermanned.

Two additional motor pumps are also needed badly, according to Howland.

The erection of a fire tower to be used in drills and the establishment of a fire school for members of the department is advocated.

Cables of the fire alarm system should be carried underground, especially within the business district, the report recommends.

Suggestions made one year ago by the underwriters' engineers who visited the city, have been in part carried out, according to Howland's report.

Fifteen miles of water main extension is to be built this year. Regret is expressed in the report, however, that the city commission omitted to include plans for one additional 20 inch supply main.

Of the more than 60 hydrants recommended in last year's report, all have been purchased and the larger ones are being placed in the business section in place of smaller ones in the past.

FINANCES LACKING

Manager Bingham, in commenting on the report, declared that a lack of finance will prevent the city from carrying out many of the suggestions made by Howland.

An electric light wire attached to a mill in a fire station, is costing the city 10 cents a $100 extra insurance premium Bingham was told Friday.

The matter was called to his attention by an insurance agent who inspected the building.

JURY RETURNS VERDICT OF $600 IN $2,000 SUIT

The jury, which heard trial of the case of William Klingner, former judge of the common pleas against the Swisher Lumber Company, returned a verdict of $600 in favor of Klingner, Friday morning.

The jury retired at 4:45 p. m. and it 10:25 returned its decision.

Klingner sued for $2,000. He declared that valuable trees on his farm had been damaged and removed by the lumber company, in violation of the contract.

REUNION BY RADIO

First Ever Held—Lima Alumni of U. of M. to Hear Program

Lima graduates of the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, will participate Saturday night in the first college alumni reunion by radio ever held.

Ralph Mackenzie, president of the Lima Alumni of the University of Michigan, announced Friday. There are 127 members in Lima.

Former graduates of the Michigan university in Lima, Ft. Wayne, Cincinnati, Chicago, Cleveland, Indianapolis and Bay City will tune in on a program of addresses, band and orchestra music and college cheers to be broadcasted from Ann Arbor, under the direction of F. H. Yost, director of athletics.

The Lima alumni members will assemble at the Jones-Studevant sales rooms, W. Market-st., where Clem Thompson's radio receiving set will pick up the sound waves and diffuse them for the entertainment of the party. The program begins at 7 p. m.

CORN GIVEN FOR WELFARE FUND

W. F. Hoover Donates 200 Bushels—Goal Still Far Off

"I have contributed to the Social Service bureau thru the Elks and Knights of Columbus," W. F. (Billy) Hoover wrote to the committee Friday, "but I'm not thru yet. I will give 200 bushels of corn from my farm, to be used as desired."

Hoover's farmers will haul the grain in from the farms on the Mar. 2nd east of the city and deliver it to the Elks and Knights of Columbus. The grain will be sold to the Social Service bureau without charging the usual commission. It will be sold on the market.

With the goal set for $50,000, the campaign committee Friday found that less than one-fourth that amount has been subscribed to date. The amount will barely discharge the bureau's present obligations.

Mrs. Irene Mills Jackson, predicts that May will prove a heavy month for the bureau. No relief from employment can come for another month. Work which is opening up is proceeding slowly or not at all. Weather conditions prevent workers from getting in more than 50 per cent of their time.

At the present rate of expenditure $10,000 is needed to carry on in May and June.

About $200 was realized from the Elks ball at the Elks club, Thursday, it was reported. The Bluffton College Glee club will give a concert at the First Congregational church Friday night. The proceeds are to go to the bureau.

The Lima-Ontario ball game at Murphy-st park, Saturday, promises to add materially to the bureau treasury. Manager Bernard Halloran is donating 50 per cent of the gate receipts.

Recent contributions are: W. L. Russell, $100; E. B. and E. T. Mitchell, $50; F. D. Carpenter, $25; H. J. Edelman, $50; J. H. Huntley, $10; Bar View club, $10; R. B. Dunn, $15; Joe Cousins, $15; Williams & Davis, $15; Carter & Carroll, $10; Golden Gate Lodge No. 260, $10; Dr. Noble, $5 and J. H. Blattenberg, $5.

SCIENTIST PRESENTS PROGRAM AS LECTURE COURSE FINAL NUMBER

Montraville M. Wood, entertaining demonstrator of modern scientific discoveries, gave the final number of the High school lecture course, Thursday evening, at Central High school auditorium. The large room was well filled for the lecture.

Wood, inventor of more than 100 devices that brand him as a practical scientist, demonstrated the gyroscope. Later, he explained this mechanism in its application to air planes and ocean liners.

Pictures of the hand or body were registered in absolute darkness, by means of the ultra-violet ray.

Wood gave to the world the trackless trolley, the safety third-rail shoe for street railways, the trolley retriever and the two-button switch, with which electric lights are turned on and off.

He predicts that not many years

AD CLUB WILL ELECT OFFICERS ON MAY 4

Officers of the Lima Ad club will be elected at a meeting in the Barr hotel, Thursday May 4.

The constitution and by-laws of the club were changed at a meeting held Thursday, so as to have the annual election at the same time as other clubs in the country. The change is made for convenience in election of delegates to the national convention.

DOYLE'S DOCTRINE RULES HOME

Children Reared According to Ideas on Spiritualism

ALL FEAR IS ELIMINATED

Lady Doyle Tells of Methods
Used in Training

BY HORTENSE SAUNDERS
NEW YORK. (Special)—While Arthur Conan Doyle preaches the doctrine of spiritualism to the world his wife makes a practical application of them in the home.

Lady Doyle is rearing three young spiritualists, Denis, 12, Malcolm, 11, and a daughter, Billy, 9, and she expects them to develop psychic powers far beyond those of their parents.

It would be hard to find three more moral, happy, enthusiastic and affectionate youngsters than the Doyle children.

"Why shouldn't they be happy?" Lady Doyle asked. "The most terrible thing in the world—fear—has been completely eliminated from their lives."

NO FEAR OF DEATH
"They do not fear death, for they know that it means only passing from one room to another—from a room where there is dissension and confusion, to one where there is only beauty and harmony."

"They know that our pleasant home life will be continued in heaven, in much the same manner that it has been on earth, except that we shall find our natures purged of the faults and shortcomings that brought sorrow here."

"They do not fear life. They will not be afraid to live courageously and fearlessly, for they know that this existence is only a training school that fits them for something bigger. All the accomplishments and talents they develop here are capable of infinitely greater development there."

"If they are selfish and inconsiderate in this life, they believe that this may unfit them for heaven, and cause their spirits, after death, to go to a lower rather than a higher sphere."

Asked if her children ever manifested any human traits like selfishness or disobedience, she laughed heartily.

"Of course they do," she replied. "I shouldn't want them to be anything but normal children, and normal children are frequently naughty, but I manage them by appealing to their sense of duty rather than their sense of fear."

"I do not believe in corporal punishment. When they have disobeyed I send them to a room by themselves and let them think things over, until they are in a reasonable frame of mind."

"I find that they will always respond to an appeal to their intelligence."

The Doyle child have never attended a demonstration of spiritualism, but they have frequently asked to be allowed to do so. They particularly want to speak to their "brother," who was killed in the war.

"Psychic demonstrations are not the place for children," Lady Doyle observed. "Until they are 18 or 20, they shall not want them to have actual communication with the spirit world."

"However, the children have grown up in such an atmosphere of spiritualism that they have thoroughly absorbed the philosophy of it."

Lady Doyle is typically English—tall, athletic and wholesome looking. In her dress she is most simple, and her manner is cordial and gracious.

CHILD WELFARE BODY TO PRESENT PAGEANT FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

"At the End of the Rainbow," fantasy written by Grace Norman Rosser, of Ada, will be presented at Memorial Hall Friday and Saturday evenings, under the auspices of the Allen County Child Welfare association.

Theme of the pageant deals with the wanderings of an artist, who, guided by the Spirit of Spring, is taught a few of Mother Nature's lessons in flowers.

Among those taking leading roles are Dale R. Marshall, Phryne Dixon Leach and Esther Damaris Toy. The soloists for the pageant are: Mrs. John Carnes, Edison Lerch, J. D. Leonard, Jr., Harry Tafflinger and Dale R. Marshall. The violinists are Mrs. J. J. Bettler and Miss Margaret Neuman and the cellist is Mrs. Andrew Dunson.

Mrs. Rosser is the director and coach; Miss Anna Cantwell, the musical director, with Miss Bernadette Blanchard as her assistant. Mrs. S. M. Williams is the general chairman; Mrs. Howard Fletcher, chairman of the ticket committee; Mrs. Seward Kolom, chairman of the flower committee; and Mrs. L. C. Faurot, chairman of the reservations.

O'CONNELL FUNERAL IS ARRANGED FOR SATURDAY

Funeral services for William O'Connell, 65, who died Thursday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. J. Casey, 706 E. Franklin, will be held Saturday at 8:30 a. m., at St. John's Catholic church, Interment in Gethsemani.

Death was due to a complication of diseases, after a long illness. Besides the daughter, at whose home he died, he is survived by three sons, Michael, of Cleveland; Daniel of Lima, and Patrick of Detroit. Fourteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren survive.

O'Connell was born in County Kerry, Ireland.

QUICK HATCHING

SPENCERVILLE. — George F. Griffin, residing west of here, asserts he has developed a strain of chickens which produce eggs that can be hatched in 14 days, instead of the usual 21 days. Griffin's statement is corroborated by John Decker, manager of the Spencerville chicken hatchery. The first eggs were brought from California, bought from Spaniards, Griffin says.

BUSINESS MAN WAS ON VERGE OF BREAKDOWN

"Tanlac Saved Me and I Now
Feel Good Clean to My Finger Tips," Says Well Known West Virginian.

"Actually, I was in such a weak and exhausted condition that for a year I walked all bent over and never was able to straighten up until I took Tanlac," said MacClelland Rood, 328 Virginia Ave., Huntington, W. Va., well-known business man.

"My stomach got out of order eighteen months ago and every time I ate a hearty meal I suffered like fury. My whole system seemed to give way and I was growing weaker and thinner every day."

"I can say for Tanlac it has just made a brand new man out of me. I eat anything I want, do any kind of work, walk as erect as an Indian and just feel good clean to my finger-tips."

Tanlac is sold in Lima by Hunter's Drug Store, and by leading druggists everywhere.—Adv.

BUREAU'S WORK OF 2 YEARS

Goal of Cincinnati Organization is 110,000,000

CINCINNATI. (Associated Press.) — At an expense of one dollar for every million readers, the Back of the Bible Bureau of Cincinnati, is getting one verse of scripture daily printed in about one thousand American newspapers and magazines. Its total daily scripture readers are estimated at 10,000,000 now, two years after the bureau's inauguration.

A goal of 110,000,000 Bible verse readers daily is announced, with a five year program to make it effective.

The Bureau's idea is that daily reading of one Bible verse makes for good citizenship, and that the best pupil thru which to reach all persons is the daily press. The organization is non-sectarian, its daily verses going to publications of all faiths, free of charge, and not only to newspapers but to trade journals, and to society and labor publications.

STARTING OF IDEA
How the idea started and its rapid growth is described by George W. Hartzell, a Dayton, Ohio, manufacturer, an advisory member of the Bureau. The chairman is James N. Gamble of the Proctor and Gamble company.

The Bureau was inaugurated two years ago by Addison Y. Reid, of Cincinnati, who is now its secretary. He had been conducting a propaganda for prohibition, sending daily contributions to a number of newspapers, and paying for their publication. With the adoption of the prohibition amendment, Mr. Reid stopped that work, but decided to try a campaign of Biblical verse.

At first he paid for the publication of daily Bible verses just the same as he had paid for the propaganda. The verses went to only a few newspapers. After about six months paid publications, other newspapers, becoming interested, and discovering that Mr. Reid was furnishing the scriptural quotations, asked him to supply them also, offering to make publication without charge. Thereupon Mr. Reid stopped paying for insertion of the verses and the present Bureau was inaugurated.

With Saturday Comes the Final Hours of Selling in This Great

End-of-the-Month Sale

OF OVER 300 NEW SPRING

WRAPS and COATS

A sale highly successful because of the unmistakable values offered in seasonable apparel. An unreserved offering of any Coat or Springtime Wrap in the house—over 300 garments in all—all from this season—many received since Easter. A sale that should appeal to every woman who anticipates the purchase of a Spring Wrap.

You who know style, will be quick to observe the expert styling, the distinctive modeling and the refined elegance of these beautiful garments. The favored fancies of Dame Fashion are portrayed in every line, and the skill of combining Spring's choicest fabrics with trimmings new and fashionable is radiantly evident. The extremely fine qualities of materials, the exquisite adornment of knotted fringing, silk tassels and silk embroidery—the correct styling of the wide sleeves and the flaring fullness of effectively draped folds are harmonized with lovely Springtime colors.

Indescribably Beautiful—Styles With a Precise Conception of the Preferred Modes—Indicating a Supremacy of Worthiness, Quickly Recognized by Well-Dressed Women.

To Radio Fans

FRIENDS: It is not unusual that some disagreeable features attach to an amusement participated in so generally as is radio today, but the chief trouble I have heard of locally is one you can eliminate by cooperation.

Many fans tell me that local amateurs, not caring to receive programs during the evening, break in while they are in progress and attempt to send messages. This does something I am not scientist enough to understand, but it ruins the pleasure of others and that shouldn't occur.

You will confer a much-appreciated favor on radio enthusiasts by being a little more considerate

To Manager Bingham

DEAR CLARENCE: I'm calling your attention to a condition concerning sidewalks in the downtown section of my city that you probably have not noticed.

There are too many places where parts of pavement have been taken up, for repair of gas or water valves or for some other purpose and the walk is not replaced. Please have this looked after.

DEAR FRED: In one respect I am sorry for you and in another I must hand you the hand-embroidered fish stringer for your nerve.

I'm sorry that time hangs so heavily on your hands as to drive you to writing poetry. But then lots of young men do that in the Spring.

As a propagandist, you are to be commended for your ability to keep John L. before the public. 'Tis a clever scheme if you get it over. Good luck.

To My City Officials

GENTLEMEN: I arrived at the conclusion a long time ago that a carnival now and then probably has little lasting effect on a city, but that too many of them are a nuisance. The season is on. HEALTH TALKS

Common Sense Ways to Keep Well
GREEN APPLE SEASON

Every red-blooded boy who has "snatched" green apples knows what cramps are. Green apples are dear to the heart and bad for the stomach of the small boy and cramps and diarrhea are usually the price he pays for eating them.

Diarrhea and cramps are due to the same cause, something in the stomach or intestine that is irritating. When the stomach or intestines try to expel this irritating matter, the cramps and diarrhea results. The best treatment is to give something to get rid of the irritating material. Castor oil or a Sedlitz powder are the best household remedies. If the cramps are severe, a little syrup of ginger in hot water will help to control the pain. A hot-water bag on the abdomen will be also valuable for the same purpose.

It is well to take little food or water during such an attack, as they will make both the diarrhea and the cramps worse. When the patient begins to feel better, milk, preferably, is the best thing to take, then some soft milk-toast, afterward eggs, getting back to the usual food gradually, and going back to milk if other food causes the diarrhea or cramps to return. Sometimes such attacks are very severe. The pain is intense, and prostration so great that one can hardly raise his head. The simple remedies mentioned may be given at once, with a teaspoonful of aromatic spirits of ammonia in half a glass of water for the prostration. Do not neglect to send for a doctor, however. You may have ptomaine poisoning or appendicitis. Remember that almost all patent cholera mixtures contain opium and are dangerous, and even deadly, for children.

Jack Dempsey's gone to Europe where he'll play around a while; He's got a raft of baggage and he's traveling in style. IN BED 29 YEARS, WOMAN BUILDS UP MILLION DOLLAR BUSINESS - NEWS PICTURES

Woman Marvel Of Age Happy In Her Work

Injured In Accident, She Will Never Leave Bed—Story of Life Valuable Lesson

By ROY GIBBONS
HAMMOND, Ind. (Special) —
That's what scientists and physicians call Mrs. Emma S. Bunnell here.

For 29 years she has been flat on her back, with death always hovering near, in the bed from which she never will be able to move.

Her spine is broken, a cord controlling much of the nervous system is cut in two, and her heart and other vital organs of the body are out of place as the result of an accident.

Yet Mrs. Bunnell, from her bed, has built up a real estate business that last year did close to a million dollar business.

She has started and is operating successfully a taxi business that operates jitneys between this and surrounding towns.

She has completed a college correspondence course and taken her degree by studying between the spells of pain.

FELL DURING FIRE
Mrs. Bunnell is 56. The accident that crippled her for life occurred shortly after her marriage. In the confusion that followed a fire in her home, she lost her balance and fell down a stairway.

Doctors said her case was hopeless and that she would die in a month. That because her spine was split in a long diagonal line, an injury in which, as far as records go, no person ever has survived.

"But the doctors were wrong," she says. "God and my will power kept me alive. I've lived to see most of the doctors who said I would die pass away themselves."

Mrs. Bunnell laughed at her own joke.

"Laugh? Why I do it all the time," she says. "It's the very best medicine I know of."

The crippled woman says her business ventures are merely the barriers she erected between herself and the thoughts of herself.

One day she sold some property for a friend by accident. This was over the telephone, which Mrs. Bunnell now calls her silent partner.

"Then I decided that if I could sell property to the friend, I could sell it for myself," she relates. "I went into the business seriously and have been successful that I have surprised myself."

"My customers seldom see me. All negotiations are transacted over the phone. Few know how badly I am crippled. Those that do come to the house, believe I am only temporarily ill."

SHARP BARGAINER
Business ventures have made Mrs. Bunnell and her husband well-to-do, but she says:

"I don't give a rap about money. It's fine to have, and some of it is a necessity, of course. But I don't glory in making it. However, I drive sharp bargains with those who deal with me. There's a difference, you know, between business and friendship."

A ten-minute interview with "the sunshine cripple" is enough to brighten the day for all her callers.

Recently one of her taxi drivers called to report that his car had been completely wrecked in a collision.

"Why worry about that?" asked Mrs. Bunnell after she had heard his story. "You saved the honk in the horn, didn't you?"

CONCRETE BRICK FOR MANHOLES CONSIDERED

City Engineer Vaughn C. Miller may adopt brick as a lining to sewer manholes, if tests he is making with the brick prove their superiority over the common clay variety.

The concrete brick cost $2 more per 1,000 than others, but have some advantages claimed for them by manufacturers, Miller said.

Do You Have Catarrh?

Almost All Blood Diseases Yield To This Treatment as Told By Mrs. Shataloe

ALLIANCE, Ohio—"I take pleasure in stating that I have used five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, one bottle of the Favorite Prescription, and a vial of Pleasant Pellets, and I am wonderfully improved. I suffered, forty years, from catarrh, and two years ago I had the 'flu' and suffered from bad head noises and my hearing was impaired. Last September, I was so weak I could scarcely walk, four blocks away from home, but after giving the 'Discovery' a fair trial and I am now able to sleep about eight hours, also eat a fair meal without suffering indigestion, and can hear the clock tick. I am twenty per cent better than I have been for five years."—Mrs. Isabelle Shataloe.

KLINGER-STARR MARRIAGE VOWS SPOKEN FRIDAY

SIMPLICITY marked the ceremony which united in marriage Miss Helen Klinger, daughter of Judge and Mrs. William Klinger, and Walter T. Starr, son of Mrs. Starr Starr, of Columbus. The wedding was solemnized Friday afternoon, at Central Church of Christ, Rev. J. Allen Canby officiating. Only the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends were in attendance.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Clarence Klinger sang a group of vocal numbers, with Miss Nello Kriete playing the organ accompaniment. The bride was becomingly attired in an attractive midnight blue tricot suit, with a small dark hat to match. Her corsage was of violets and valley lilies.

An informal reception at the church followed the ceremony, after which Mr. Starr and his bride left on a 10 days' wedding trip thru the east. Upon their return they will be at home at 517 S. Ohio-av, Columbus. The bride was graduated from Ohio State University in the Class of 1921. She is affiliated with the Phi Beta Phi sorority and is also a member of the Phi Beta Kappa of the Class of 1921.

Mr. Starr is also a graduate of Ohio State university and for the past few years has been a civil engineer in the employ of the City of Columbus.

In compliment to Miss Marie Long, whose marriage to Marshall Harrison, of Springfield will be an event of the near future, Miss Mildred Catt and Miss Esther Wagner entertained a small group of friends with a pleasantly appointed dinner in the private dining room at the Hotel Barr, Thursday evening. Vases of pink sweetpeas and roses adorned the table while ferns were strewn the entire length.

The guests included Miss Frances Hoberhour, Miss Josephine Hallgren, Miss Lucille Patterson, Miss Maude Mullen, Miss Matilda Long, Miss Gertrude Gillham, Miss Selma Weikelbaum, Miss Rosemary Christen and Miss Long, the honor guest.

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Helen Day, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer R. Day, and Eugene Core, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Core, created genuine surprise in Columbus, where both are leaders in their social set. The wedding occurred June 17, 1921, in Chicago, where the bride was visiting at the time, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Connell (Jeanette Day).

Both were widely known in Lima. Mrs. Core has frequently been the guest of Mrs. Edward Bolson. Mr. Core is a member of the Lima club and of Shawnee Country Club. They will receive their friends, after May 15, at their new home, 2335 Maplewood-av. Toledo. Mr. Core is president of the Atlas Tool company, Toledo.

Mrs. George Shoemaker, of Brice-av, welcomed the members of the Child's Conservation League, at her home Thursday afternoon. Mrs. O. Stevens presented a paper on "Homemaking." Plans were made for an apron bazaar to be held at the home of Mrs. Oscar Stevens, of N. Jameson-av next Friday afternoon for the benefit of the relief fund of the Social Service bureau. Mrs. How and Napier is general chairman; Mrs. Earl R. Leach, chairman of the program and Mrs. Mrs. George Weikel, will be in charge of the apron bazaar.

The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Paul Sweger, of Faurot-av.

Mrs. Dwight L. Goodyear, of W. Market-st, received the members of the Fortnightly Bridge club at her home at 1 o'clock luncheon, Thursday. The substitutes were Mrs. W. Holmes, Mrs. George Weikel, Mrs. Vail and Mrs. B. Harley Holmes. In the playing, Mrs. M. S. Thompson held high score among the members and Mrs. Holmes among the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Case, of N. Motcal-st, will attend the meeting of the San Diego De Cuba association in the Hamilton club, Chicago, Saturday. Teddy Roosevelt, Jr. will be among the prominent speakers at the gatherings. Mr. Case served in the First Illinois Volunteer Infantry, Company H, during the Spanish-American war.

Among Lima residents who will attend the high school Elstadded in Friday evening will be Mr. and Mrs. J. Robb Melly and children Frances and David, Miss Margaret Grege, Prof. N. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Calver.

Among Lima people who will attend the meeting of the division heads of the Allen County Sunday School association in West Cairo Friday evening will be Mrs. C. T. Lipincott, A. S. Chenoweth, Miss Roadie Camp, Fred Zeits, and Irvil Brentlinger. Mr. Brentlinger is the county secretary and will be in charge of the meeting.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

SUNDAY SUSIE SMART
AM a girl 19 years old. Several months ago I married a man who I thought would make me happy. Now I realize my mistake. He is never home evenings and he does not try in the least to make me happy. I cannot stand it any longer. I am young and I feel that I do not want to waste my life. I feel that I have a right to happiness and I am certain that I can never be happy with this man. What can I do to get a divorce?

PERHAPS you have not stopped to realize, Nellie, that you are unjust and unfair in dividing your marriage only a several months trial. You have given up too easily. You were quite young to marry and yet you were old enough to understand what a serious undertaking it is and a step not to be taken too lightly.

You should have been certain that your husband was the man you really wanted to marry before you married him. If you really loved him you would have tried harder to find happiness with him. You would have made yourself and your home life so attractive and pleasing to him that he would not want to be away evenings.

Before you think further of securing a divorce, try once more to make this marriage a success. Be patient and cheerful and try to win your own happiness by helping to bring happiness to your husband.

Dear Miss Smart:
As I am a daily reader of The Lima News and have read your advice, I think I shall ask a few questions. (1) Is a girl of 18 too young to go with the boys? (2) Is it a habit that when I am alone I write to several boys while I am so lonely? (3) Is it proper for me to be worn much this summer? (4) Are the flappers hats? (5) Are the long skirts going to come back in style? (6) How is my writing?

(1) Certainly. A girl of 18 is almost too young to go very often with any boy and if she does it is ridiculous for her to think of going with one boy alone. She is much too young to devote all of her time to one and center all of her interest in him. Try to be friendly with all the boys and not think too seriously of any one of them until you are considerably older. (2) I can see no reason why it could not be a habit. (3) The flapper hats will be worn some. The flapper hats will be worn extensively for sport wear. (4) They are not noticeable longer now and probably will not be for some time. (5) Very good.

At the meeting of the Shakespeare Study club Thursday at the Public Library, Mrs. W. G. "Farmer" Mrs. E. W. and Mr. M. D. Green were appointed to make arrangements for the presentation of Galsworthy's, "Pigeon" some time in May, for the benefit of the relief fund of the Social Service bureau. The club has been dramatizing the play at the regular meetings.

Preceding the dramatization of the third act at the meeting Thursday, Mrs. W. L. Rogers, in charge, gave a paper on "Galsworthy, the Man." She also gave a synopsis of the first two acts.

The following took part in the dramatization: Mrs. George Quail as Wellwyn, the artist; Mrs. Donald Coon as Ann; Mrs. A. N. Wisely as Fernand; Mrs. C. P. Stafford as the constable; Mrs. J. C. Collins as Mrs. Megan; Mrs. M. G. Shockey as Timson; Mrs. E. W. and Mr. Canon Bertley; Mrs. Charles Walther as the first humble man; Mrs. W. G. Warfield as the second humble man and Mrs. Mary Elder as the third humble man and loafer.

Following the presentation Mrs. Rogers conducted an interesting discussion. Miss Grace Reynolds was elected to the active membership of the club.

SAVE THREADS

If the threads which are pulled out of the table linen which is being made ready for hemstitching, are wound and saved they can be used for mending worn linens. Such threads are better for mending linen than ordinary cotton thread.

EASIER LAUNDERING

If the clothes which must be washed are put into a tub of luke warm soapy water the night before, the rubbing on wash day will be considerably lessened. Colored clothing and stockings should not be allowed to thus remain in water, however.

IRONING MUSLIN

Muslin should be ironed while damp else its attraction, its smoothness, will be lacking. It should be ironed on the right side.

AGNES DOHONEY

SAN FRANCISCO — Here's the California "Convention Girl," selected by Disabled American War Veterans in a unique beauty contest. Agnes Dohoney is her name. Among the conditions of the contest were these: "No flappers, or flapper types shall be allowed to enter, or shall be considered if they enter."

"Old-fashioned beauty, plus character, will be an important factor in judging the winner. Contestants must have demonstrated that they have brains as well as beauty." The winner will be chief of the hostesses during the veterans' national convention here in June. Also she will be the model for convention posters.

MEAT FLAVOR

Sister Mary Suggests Some Dishes that Have It

Made dishes with a meat flavor have a very definite place in the spring menu.

The odor of meat surely stimulates the appetite and aids digestion by increasing the flow of gastric juices. But during the warm season of the year the quantity of meat should be lessened. Try these recipes that make "half the meat go twice around" and see if the family isn't healthier and happier.

ROUND STEAK PUDDING
One-half pound round steak, 2 cups diced carrots, 3 slices bacon, 1-2 small onion, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon pepper, flour, biscuit dough.

Have the butcher trim and grind the steak coarsely. Cut the bacon in small pieces. Sift flour over the ground meat and stir with a fork until the meat has absorbed all the flour it will. Put the bacon in a hot spider and as soon as the fat begins to fry out add the steak.

Stir and cook until each tiny piece is slightly browned. Put the contents of the spider into a deep baking dish, add carrots, onion minced, salt and pepper. Pour over boiling water to half cover. Make a biscuit dough and cut in small biscuits. Cover the meat with biscuits and bake half an hour in a hot oven. Serve at once in the same dish.

To make biscuit dough: One and one-half cups flour, three teaspoons baking powder, one-quarter teaspoon salt, two tablespoons butter, water to make a soft dough. Mix and sift dry ingredients. Rub in butter with tips of fingers. Add water, cutting the dough with a silver knife to mix. Roll on a floured board and cut with a biscuit cutter. The amount will serve four persons.

DRIED BEEF WITH RICE
One-fourth pound dried beef, 1 cup milk, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon minced onion, 1-2 cup rice, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons grated cheese.
Cook rice in boiling salted water till tender. Melt butter in frying pan, add dried beef picked in small pieces, pepper and onion and cook five minutes. Add milk and bring to the boiling point. Stir in rice and cheese.

Turn into a baking dish and bake till firm. No salt is necessary because the dried beef is salty enough to suit the dish.

MEAT ROLLS
One-half pound round steak, 1-4 pound pork steak, 3 potatoes, 1-2 onion, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, biscuit dough, parsley.

Put beef and pork steak thru chopper till very fine. Put potatoes and onion thru chopper and mix thoroughly with meat. Season with salt and pepper and make in small rolls. Make a biscuit dough as in the first recipe.

Roll about one-half inch thick and cut in squares. Put the meat mixture in the center of each square of dough and roll. Dampen the edge of the dough with a little water to make it stick and pinch the ends together. Prick the top with a fork in several places and bake 45 minutes in a hot oven.

OUR FIRST YEAR

BY A BRIDE

INSPIRING A HUSBAND

START THIS SERIES HERE
Perfect contentment may be found in individual independence, this bride and groom think. But their financial affairs are interfering with their "perfect freedom."

Of course I expect my husband will some day be a rich man. I've been poor all my life. I'm tired of it.

We girls used to talk this over at college. And I know that lots of girls feel the same as I do. They agree that a girl, after she's married, mustn't be too easy in her demands on a husband. Not if she wants to make anything of him.

Jeanne Allison used to get perfectly furious when we talked so.

"You silly flappers!" she used to scold. "You marry to spend and spend! And demand and demand! You want things and things! You plan to drive your husbands! Then what? You'll lose 'em! And you deserve 'em!"

"But they say that if a wife is too contented, a husband will slump! Make a man too happy, and he'll slump." So Mary Smith, at college, had said. "I think a wife can help her husband make a fortune by keeping him on his toes!"

Jeanne asked: "You girls all remember Molly Gaines?"

We did. Molly is the shining millionaire among our alumnae.

"Well, Molly married her chemistry professor, you know. And she prides herself on having made her husband. He was content to fool around with science, just as science, you know. Molly decided he might as well make a fortune out of his knowledge, and not teach in a minor university all his life. So she kept at him until he went into commercial life. Color was his specialty. He was always measuring color waves. Now he makes dyes."

"And a million a year!"

"Yes! And he used to be the dearest, sweetest man in the university. And now he's an old grouch!"

Only a few of us shared Jeanne's opinion. Most of us believed that making money is a duty a man owes his wife. For doesn't a girl, when she marries, surrender her own chance to acquire a fortune? Doesn't a man, then, assume a double responsibility, his own and her's? So we girls argued in school. And I never have forgotten the theory. And long ago I decided not to let my husband get into a financial rut. Naturally, Jack felt from the first his wife ought to have the best of everything. Just as a matter of personal pride. For example, whenever I have mentioned a car, Jack agrees that I ought to have one.

I must admit that he never brings up the question of a car, but he is attentive when I tell him about the new models some of the other girls have. Jessie Langdon has a new sedan. And her husband is in the office with Jack. I suppose things will come our way some time.

But I have a harder problem than most of the girls. For if Jack has one single thing fault in his character, it is this: he may be a wee bit too much of a reader and a dreamer and a chess player.

He much prefers sitting over a chess board at some kind of chess solitaire to going to the most brilliant society event of the season. And that attitude toward society and people with money will not do — if Jack is to make a quick success.

LEARN A WORD A DAY

TODAY'S word is CONTRABAND.

It's pronounced—kon-tra-band—with accent on the first syllable. It means—goods or merchandise the importation of which is forbidden; smuggled goods.

It comes from—Latin "contra," against, and a low Latin word of Teutonic origin, "bannum," edict or proclamation.

It's used like this—"The bootleggers landed a large cargo of contraband."

WOMEN VS. RADIO IN CAMPAIGN

New and Beveridge in Hot Race
for Indiana Honors

FORMER IGNORES WOMEN

Sees Mistake and Endeavors to Repair Damages

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — When Senator Harry S. New, of Indiana, first launched his campaign for the Republican nomination to succeed himself in the upper house of the national legislature he counted on waging his fight, to a considerable extent thru speeches broadcast by radio telephone.

His friends did not deem an organization of women voters desirable in support of his candidacy.

They have changed their minds. Or rather, ex-Senator Albert J. Beveridge, who seeks to go back to Washington in Senator New's place, changed their minds for them.

SOUGHT WOMEN FIRST

Beveridge went, first and foremost, after women's votes. He spoke and lectured thruout Indiana, and for the most part in churches. Frankly he sought to enlist women especially in his cause.

After about a month of this, Senator New's friends acknowledged that their candidate's women supporters must be brought more actively into the contest.

The result is that much of the most effective campaigning, as between New and Beveridge, is being done by women, and there are more women speakers in the field than men.

KEEPS UP RADIO

New has not given up his fight by radio. Several of the halls where he has spoken or is to speak are fitted with radio telephones and the senator hopes, in particular, to reach thousands of farmers by this means. Nevertheless, the importance of the appeal to women is fully recognized.

Two such practical politicians as Senator Watson, Republican, and Thomas Taggart, Democratic leader in Indiana, say that they think New will be nominated, and Watson adds that the Republican nomination is equivalent to election, as he considers the Democratic party in the state "greatly demoralized." The Democrats take a different view. Their version is that the New-Beveridge rivalry has developed considerable bitterness, which they predict will divide the Republican party into factions, whereas they say their own contest is friendly, tho they have five candidates for nomination in the field.

TEST ON MAY 2

The Democratic aspirants are ex-Governor Samuel M. Ralston, who, in press in general seems to consider, is likely to get the nomination; State Senator B. B. Shively, a relative of ex-Vice President Marshall; Daniel W. Simms, Dr. Jesse Sanders and Charles Howard.

The test will come on May 2, when the Indiana primaries will be held. It will be the first test of the kind, of national interest, anticipatory of the next election.

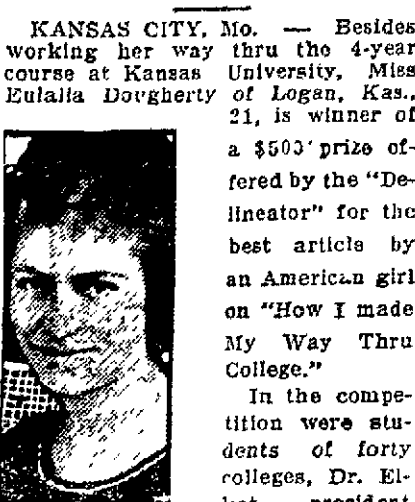

PLAY IS CHOSEN

"Peg O' My Heart" has been chosen by the Junior class of Central high school as the class play. It will be presented in the school auditorium May 5th.

MISS KRIEGER ILL

Miss Alice Krieger, of Bellefontaine, is confined to her home by illness.

WINS $1,000 IN ART CONTEST

Miss Dougherty

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Besides working her way thru the 4-year course at Kansas University, Miss Eulalia Dougherty of Logan, Kas., 21, is winner of a $500 prize offered by the "Delineator" for the best article by an American girl on "How I made My Way Thru College."

In the competition were students of forty colleges, Dr. Elliot, president of Harvard, was among the judges.

To pay for her education, Miss Dougherty did every sort of work, from helping at housecleaning and caring for faculty members' children to correspondence work for newspapers. All these experiences are described in her article.

The young woman has "majored" in the university department of journalism. She will be graduated in June as a bachelor of arts.

CHURCHES ADOPT MILITARY PLAN

Federation Opens Unique Campaign in Delaware-co

DRIVE IS ON FOR CONVERTS

Field Charted as Accurately as Any Battlefield

DELAWARE, Ohio. — (Associated Press.) — The Delaware County Church Federation is going after church converts the way a military leader would set out to win a battle — with blue prints, maps and charts, and other instruments of exact science.

The fields in which the churches of the county are to campaign for new converts have been charted as accurately as any battle-front, and every detail essential to efficient evangelism is noted on the series of maps, believed to represent the most complete rural religious study ever conducted in the United States.

Statistics corresponding to the maps have been compiled in tabular form for reference purposes, but the charts themselves constitute the graphic representation of the county's church situation.

MAP OF COUNTY

First is a map of the county, showing the exact location of each of the 21 rural and village churches, each denomination being indicated by a distinctive color.

Next, the county has been broken up into smaller community areas — sometimes a township, sometimes a centralized school district, sometimes a village and surrounding territory. Each of these community areas has been mapped on a larger scale, with every family residence located and the religious affiliations, if any, of the members of the household indicated.

Finally, various subsidiary maps have been made — each to depict distinctly some particular phase of the church situation. One shows each church, with lines radiating from it connecting it with each of the homes in its parish.

OHIOAN LOSES ALL IN RUSSIA

Elyria Man's Fortune Seized by
Soviet Government

ATTACKS HIGH OFFICIALS

Instead of Probable Death, He
Receives Testimonial

RIGA — (Associated Press) —
Fred Keyes, of Elyria, Ohio, a trainer of blooded horses, is perhaps the only foreigner in Russia, who told Soviet government just what he thought of it and received a testimonial for his frankness. He lately
left Russia for home after an absence of nine years.

Keyes came to Russia in 1913,
under contract with Count Ilarion
Dashkov, Viceroy of the Caucasus,
and owner of some of the most valuable race horses in the world. He was to receive a salary of $10,000
to $15,000 a year as breeder and trainer of the Count's horses and as manager of his 76,000-acre stock
farm.

Despite the Count's death in 1915,
and the revolution two years later,
Keyes was reluctant to leave Russia.
He saw his savings disappear, the farm taken over by the Soviets and famine approaching, but still he determined to stick.

HORSES TAKEN
This resolution remained unshaken for months, but the turning point came when the government
suddenly ordered his splendid trotting horses turned over to the peasants for ordinary farm work.
Keyes sought out the highest Soviet official, literally took his life in his hands, and bitterly arraigned them for their action. Much to his surprise they heartily agreed with him, but refused to cancel the order.

His love and consideration for the horses made such a favorable impression, however, that a few days
later he was presented with a testimonial, written on official Soviet paper and adorned with several elaborate government seals. This and the old contract with Count
Dashkov is all Keyes has to show
for his nine years in Russia.

MAY SEND COMMISSION HERE

Investigators to Include Both
Wets and Drys

STOCKHOLM — (Associated Press) — A Swedish commission
may be sent to the United States to make a study of the effects of prohibition in that country and report to the Swedish people before the consultative plebiscite on prohibition to be held in Sweden next autumn.

The proposal has been made by the Central Board of the Swedish
Students' Association for Absolute Prohibition. This organization is composed of students in the higher schools and in universities. They suggest that the commission shall be composed of an equal number of "wets" and "drys," the "wets" to be appointed by the newly organized
National League For Temperance.

THORO STUDY
The students' organization points out the immense importance of the American experiment to the development of prohibition all over the world, stating that the Swedish people, before casting their vote on this issue, should receive reliable information concerning the general effects of the dry law in the United States.

The report to be submitted to the Swedish voters must be based on thorough study of the social, economic and cultural effects of prohibition.

It is further pointed out that reports from the United States on the effect of the dry law are extremely contradictory and an investigation
by a body composed of open-minded
persons selected from both ranks
should gain general confidence and be
of great value to the Swedish public in deciding the wet and dry issue at the polls.

The Ladies Aid of 2nd St. church
will hold a bake sale and bazaar at Ottawa Paint Shop, Saturday.

RASH DISFIGURED CHILD'S FACE

Also On Back and Chest.
Lost Rest. Cuticura Heals.

"My baby broke out with a rash on his face, back and chest. At first they were dry pimples, and after a few days became dry and hard.
His skin was red and sore, and the eruptions itched so that he scratched, and his face was disfigured. His clothing aggravated the breaking out, and at night he was cross and lost his rest."

"I began using Cuticura Soap and

WOMEN VS. RADIO IN CAMPAIGN

New and Beveridge in Hot Race for Indiana Honors

FORMER IGNORES WOMEN

Sees Mistake and Endeavors to Repair Damages

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — When Senator Harry New, of Indiana first launched his campaign for the Republican nomination to succeed himself in the upper house of the national legislature he counted on winning his fight, to a considerable extent thru speeches broadcast by radio telephone.

His friends did not deem an organization of women voters desirable in support of his candidacy.

They have changed their minds. Or rather, ex-Senator Albert J. Beveridge, who seeks to go back to Washington in Senator New's place, changed their minds for them.

SOUGHT WOMEN FIRST

Beveridge went, first and foremost, after women's votes. He spoke and lectured thruout Indiana, and for the most part in churches. Frankly he sought to enlist women especially in his cause.

After about a month of this, Senator New's friends acknowledged that their candidate's women supporters must be brought more actively into the contest.

The result is that much of the most effective campaigning, as between New and Beveridge, is being done by women, and there are more women speakers in the field than men.

KEEPS UP RADIO

New has not given up his fight by radio. Several of the halls where he has spoken or is to speak are fitted with radio telephones and the senator hopes, in particular, to reach thousands of farmers by this means. Nevertheless, the importance of the appeal to women is fully recognized.

Two such practical politicians as Senator Watson, Republican, and Thomas Taggart, Democratic leader in Indiana, say that they think New will be nominated, and Watson adds that the Republican nomination is equivalent to election, as the state is the Democratic party in the state "greatly demoralized." The Democrats take a different view. Their version is that the New-Beveridge rivalry has developed considerable bitterness, which they predict will divide the Republican party into factions, whereas they say their own contest is friendly, tho they have five candidates for nomination in the field.

TEST ON MAY 2

The Democratic aspirants are ex-Governor Samuel M. Ralston, who, the press in general seems to consider, is likely to get the nomination; State Senator B. B. Shively, a relative of ex-Vice President Marshall; Daniel W. Simms, Dr. Jesse Sanders and Charles Howard.

The test will come on May 2, when the Indiana primaries will be held. It will be the first test, of kind, of national interest, anticipation of the next election.

PLAY IS CHOSEN

"Peg O' My Heart" has been chosen by the Junior class of Central high school as the class play. It will be presented in the school auditorium May 5th.

MISS KRIEGER ILL

Miss Alice Krieger, of Bellefontaine, is confined to her home by illness.

WINS $1,000 IN ART CONTEST

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Besides working her way thru the 4-year course at Kansas University, Miss Eulalia Dougherty of Logan, Kas., 21, is winner of a $500 prize offered by the "Delineator" for the best article by an American girl on "How I made My Way Thru College."

In the competition were students of forty colleges, Dr. Eliot, president of Harvard, was among the judges.

To pay for her education, Miss Dougherty did every sort of work, from helping at housecleaning and caring for faculty members' children to correspondence work for news papers. All these experiences are described in her article.

The young woman has "majored" in the university department of journalism. She will be graduated in June as a bachelor of arts.

CHURCHES ADOPT MILITARY PLAN

Federation Opens Unique Campaign in Delaware-co

DRIVE IS ON FOR CONVERTS

Field Charted as Accurately as Any Battlefield

DELAWARE, Ohio — (Associated Press) — The Delaware County Church Federation is going after church converts the way a military leader would set out to win a battle—with blue prints, maps and charts, and other instruments of exact science.

The fields in which the churches of the county are to campaign for new converts have been charted as accurately as any battlefield, and every detail essential to efficient evangelism is noted on the series of maps, believed to represent the most complete rural religious study ever conducted in the United States.

Statistics corresponding to the maps have been compiled in tabular form for reference purposes, but the charts themselves constitute the graphic representation of the county's church situation.

First is a map of the county, showing the exact location of each of the 31 rural and village churches, each denominated being indicated by a distinctive color.

Next, the county has been broken up into smaller community areas—sometimes a township, sometimes a centralized school district, sometimes a village and surrounding territory. Each of these community areas has been mapped on a larger scale, with every family residence located and the religious affiliations, if any, of the members of the household indicated.

Finally, various subsidiary maps have been made—each to depict distinctly some particular phase of the church situation. One shows each church, with lines radiating from it connecting it with each of the homes in its parish.

OHIOAN LOSES ALL IN RUSSIA

Elyria Man's Fortune Seized by
 Soviet Government

ATTACKS HIGH OFFICIALS

Instead of Probable Death, He
 Receives Testimonial

RIGA — (Associated Press) —
 Fred Keyes, of Elyria, Ohio, a trainer of blooded horses, is perhaps the only foreigner in Russia, who told
 Soviet government just what he thought of it and received a testimonial for his frankness. He lately
 left Russia for home after an absence of nine years.

Keyes came to Russia in 1913,
 under contract with Count Ilarion
 Dashkov, Viceroy of the Caucasus,
 and owner of some of the most valuable race horses in the world. He was to receive a salary of $10,000
 to $15,000 a year as breeder and
 trainer of the Count's horses and as manager of his 75,000-acre stock
 farm.

Despite the Count's death in 1916,
 and the revolution two years later,
 Keyes was reluctant to leave Russia.
 He saw his savings disappear, the
 farm taken over by the Soviets and famine approaching, but still he determined to stick.

HORSES TAKEN
 This resolution remained unshaken for months, but the turning point came when the government
 suddenly ordered his splendid
 trotting horses turned over to the
 peasants for ordinary farm work.
 Keyes sought out the highest Soviet officials, literally took his life
 in his hands, and bitterly arraigned them for their action. Much to his surprise they heartily agreed with him, but refused to cancel the order.

His love and consideration for the horses made such a favorable impression, however, that a few days
 later he was presented with a testimonial, written on official Soviet
 paper and adorned with several elaborate government seals. This
 and the old contract with Count
 Dashkov is all Keyes has to show
 for his nine years in Russia.

MAY SEND COMMISSION HERE

Investigators to Include Both
 Wets and Drys

STOCKHOLM — (Associated Press) — A Swedish commission
 may be sent to the United States to make a study of the effects of prohibition in that country and report to the Swedish people before the consultative plebiscite on prohibition to be held in Sweden next autumn.

The proposal has been made by
 the Central Board of the Swedish
 Students' Association for Absolute
 Prohibition. This organization is composed of students in the higher
 schools and in universities. They suggest that the commission shall
 be composed of an equal number of
 "wets" and "drys," the "wets" to be appointed by the newly organized
 National League For Temperance.

THORO STUDY
 The students' organization points
 out the immense importance of the American experiment to the development of prohibition all over the world, stating that the Swedish people, before casting their vote on this issue, should receive reliable information concerning the general effects of the dry law in the United States.

The report to be submitted to the Swedish voters must be based on thoro study of the social, economic and cultural effects of prohibition.
 It is further pointed out that reports from the United States on the effect of the dry law are extremely contradictory and an investigation
 by a body composed of open-minded
 persons selected from both ranks
 should gain general confidence and be
 of great value to the Swedish public
 in deciding the wet and dry issue at
 the polls.

The Ladies Aid of 2nd St. church
 will hold a bake sale and bazaar at Ottawa Paint Shop, Saturday.

FRED NIBLO DEFENDS HOKUM IN THE MOVIES

(By ESTHER WAGNER)

FRED NIBLO, one of the most painstaking and capable directors of the screen, takes issue with movie critics on the subject of "hokum" in films.

Niblo believes that writers refer to scene, which are used over and over again for specific reactions on the audience, when they use the term "hokum."

"The dividing line between hokum and genius is the heart line," says Niblo.

"People react to love, sorrow, joy, in very much the same way the world over. An emotional scene may be hokum or it may be genius. It all depends on how closely the director brings it into the actual lives of the audience, how near he touches their hearts by stirring up memories of similar personal experiences."

Surely no commentator on the movies will quarrel with Niblo on that statement, as far as it goes. The repetition of certain situations in pictures becomes hokum when it signals its intent, when the audience senses that the director has given the cue for it to laugh or cry.

An emotional scene is hokum when it doesn't react emotionally upon the audience.

Beautiful May MacAvoy—at the Quilna

"EVERYTHING for Sale," the Raynor Lehr production showing this week-end at the Quilna, is another nice little rap being handed to the poor rich man. Dear me, he do have a terrible time of it! Not once have the movies shown him as a manly, clean young man, who honestly desires the love of a sweet and charming young girl. No, indeed, he's always a rotter, and no nice girl should love him.

According to that, no nice girl should cast an eye at a rich young man, and no rich young man has any right to woo a nice young girl. They simpletons are not made for each other. That's according to the movies. On the other hand, he must go thru life a waster and ne'er do-well, while the young girl marries the poor young engineer, or whatever he happens to be. All of which is apropos to and really a part of, our story.

Here we have the grasping Mrs. Wainwright, who wants her niece, Helen, to marry the fabulously wealthy Mr. Morton. You see, the family is in debt, and needs Mr. Morton more than Helen dreams of. And Mr. Morton wants Helen but Helen, to be contrary and to provide interest in the story, wants an architect. However, she consents to the distasteful union with Mr. Morton and everything is almost settled, when the architect turns up, on the wedding day, and completely demoralizes the plans of auntie and Mr. Morton and does things to his own satisfaction.

You will adore little May MacAvoy as Helen, the object of discussion. Eddie Sutherland, as the poor architect, is quite alright in his role, having youth and good looks on his side. Kathleen Williams and Richard Tucker, as the aunt and the wealthy fiancé, will gain your entire approval.

And so, we pass on with the remark that "Everything for Sale," while pursuing the same old line of thought, is a pleasant little drama, and will, no doubt, amuse you.

At the Quilna today and again on Saturday.

May MacAvoy. Her latest is "Thru a Glass Window."

Anita Stewart, star of "The Woman He Married" and "Rose o' the Sea."

ton, Joseph Tooker and Peggy Shaw are in the cast of a picture based on "Dr. Rameau," by George Ohnet.

Gladys Walton is filming "Top o' the Mornin'."

"The Ghost Breaker," the stage play by Charles Goddard and Paul

Dickey, will be done in celluloid in May with Wallace Reid as star and Lila Lee as leading lady.

MARY M. MINTER'S NEXT

When Mary Miles Minter resumes work upon her return from Hawaii she will head the cast of "The Cowboy and the Lady." It will be directed by John S. Robertson.

ANOTHER ELLIOT GLYN FILM

"The Eyes of Truth," an original screen story by Elliot Glyn, is to be filmed by Sol Lesser. The secondary theme of the picture is an exposition of Hollywood life as Madame Glyn sees it.

Our idea of a capable cast—Theodore Kosloff, Theodore Roberts, Bert Lytell, Betty Compson and George Fawcett. They will be in

George Fitzmaurice's production "To Have and to Hold." film produced in England by J. Stuart Blackton. When that is completed Blackton will start the second picture starring Lady Diana Mian Georges Carpentier. France's fighting idol, will be featured in a

Orpheum Presents New Bill

THE Raynor Lehr company of entertainers, who have been playing a combination of stock and vaudeville bills, entered upon the last lap of its engagement in this city, presenting for the last stock attraction, the musical farce, "Babe Mine."

An entirely new array of solos, dances, quartette numbers and musical selections accompany the bill, which will continue in effect until Sunday when a new bill will be presented for one day only.

Henry Riquemore's Musical Comedy, an organization of talented musical comedy artists, will be the attraction at the Orpheum for one week, starting Monday May 1st.

This attraction comes to Lima with the reputation of being one of the very best attractions now playing this part of the country.

The show is known as the "Show of Special Features," by reason of the added vaudeville features presented in connection with their regular musical entertainment. A beautiful chorus is another added asset to this clever attraction. The opening show "Hello Pansy," is a new musicalized comedy by Lawrence Bringham, with music by Ted Gardner.

Starting Monday matinee the Orpheum theatre will revert back to the winter policy of three shows daily, 2:30, 7:30 and 9:00 o'clock and will also revert back to former prices.

THEATRE DIRECTORY

AT THE SIGMA

"A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court," the world-famous comedy by Mark Twain, is the special attraction again today at the Sigma theatre. Harry Myers, Rosemary Theby and Pauline Starke are some of the featured players. Also a two-reel comic.

AT THE LYRIC

"White Hands," a stirring sea tale with Hobart Bosworth in the leading role, is appearing again today at the Lyric theatre. Also a two-reel comedy.

AT THE MAJESTIC

"What is a Wife Worth?" with an all-star cast, opens a two day engagement today at the Majestic theatre. Also other features.

NOTES

Martha Mason is to play the role of Lady Astrupp, the "vamp" in "The Masquerader."

Many college students appear as extras in "Sonny," Richard Barthelmess' next.
